TEUTONIC ARMIES ARE DRIVEN BACK BY THE RUMANIANS

Turn of Tide in Transylvania Indicated by Berlin Report, Which Admits the Enemy's Resistance Has Stiffened.

IMPORTANT ADVANCES ARE MADE BY FRENCH

Bavarians Storm Russian Position in Galicia—Italians Break Austrian Line in Advance on Trentino.

New York, October 18.—(By Associated Press European Cable.)—Apparently the Rumanians have been successful, at least temporarily, in stopping the advance of the Teutonic allies all along their border. At no point along the line does either Berlin or Vienna claim fresh successes against the Rumanians, while the Bucharest war office asserts that the troops of King Ferdinand at various points have repulsed the attacks of the Teutonic allies, inflicting heavy losses on them and capturing numbers of their officers and men.

Violent fighting is still in progress in Galicia, where on the Naraguvka front the Bavarians have stormed a Russian position and captured 350 men and 12 machine guns. Berlin asserts that west of Lutsk, in Volhynia, following the repulse of the Russians, the troops of Emperor Nicholas have not returned to the fray and are merely bombarding the Teutonic positions. The repulse of Austro-German attacks in the Carpathians, where snow is now falling, is recorded by Petrograd.

FRESH ADVANCE MADE BY FRENCH.

Both north and south of the Somme the French troops have made fresh gains. The village of Sailly-Saillisel is now entirely in their hands and the Germans have been driven from the hills north and northeast. Over a front of a mile south of the river, between La Maisonnette and Biaches the German first line defenses have been driven back by the French.

East of Thiepval gains by the British north of Gueudecourt and in the region of Butte de Warlencourt are recorded by the London war office.

Patrol encounters and bombardments feature the fighting in Macedonia.

In the Austro-Italian theater the Italians are another step forward in their advance in Trentino, having broken the Austrian line between Cosmetgnon and Rolte, and also taken a commanding position on Mount Pasubio.

TEUTONIC FORCES ARE DRIVEN BACK BY RUMANIANS

Bucharest, October 17.—(Via London, October 18.)—Rumanian troops in the Predeal region southwest of Kronstadt have resumed the offensive and are driving back the Teutonic forces on the

Homes Are Opened To 100 Boys, When Storm Ruins Tents

Chamber of Commerce Does Quick Work in Providing for Farm Lads Here for the Short Term Agricultural Course.

One hundred Georgia farm boys, who are attending the short term agriculture course in connection with the Southeastern fair at Lakewood, were suddenly thrown on the hospitality of Atlanta people Wednesday, when the wind storm blew down the tents in which they were sleeping at the fair grounds.

But Atlanta was more than equal to the occasion and immediately took the boys in and before night every one of the 100 had a home with some Atlanta family.

"Atlanta has again proven herself equal to an emergency," said Dr. Phil Campbell, of the state college of agriculture, who is in charge of the short term institute, in commenting on the way Atlanta people opened their homes to the boys.

"As soon as the tents were blown down I made known our trouble to the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and they got busy. In an amazing short time they informed me they had homes for all of the boys.

"The boys and girls who are members of the corn and canning clubs who were entertained by Atlanta people last year and again this year, feel kindly towards the people of your city. And now Atlanta, at a moment's notice, has taken care of the 100 boys attending the short term course, and every one of them has fallen in love with the city and the people," he said.

In addition to blowing down the tents in which the boys were sleeping, the heavy wind also blew down several other tents on the grounds. A large corps of workmen were busy Wednesday afternoon and night repairing the damage and today everything is shipshape again.

HAND'S SUCCESSOR TO BE NAMED SOON

Governor Harris Has Tendered Place on W. & A. Commission to St. Elmo Massengale, It Is Stated.

While Governor Nat E. Harris has made no announcement, it was learned yesterday that the governor has made up his mind as to the appointment of the successor of the late Judson L. Hand, of the Western and Atlantic railroad commission.

It is said that the place has been tendered to St. Elmo Massengale, of Atlanta, manager of Governor Harris' campaign two years ago, loyal supporter in his last campaign and secretary of the last state democratic executive committee.

Mr. Massengale is now in New York. It is understood that the tender has been made by wire.

Whether or not he will accept is now unknown.

Buy-right Hints for the Housewife

Prompt Your Visitors to Read the Advertising!

The merchants of Atlanta, who are regular advertisers in The Constitution, have all gotten down their "price pruners" and put an extra sharp edge on them this week to give the out-o'-town throngs who are coming to the fair the opportunity rarely accorded to buy winter needs in many lines at a remarkable saving. There are hundreds of Atlanta housekeepers who are hostesses to kith, kin or friends from other towns and cities this week, who, being readers of Constitution advertising, can render a service by calling their guests' attention to the news of the stores and their money-saving prices.

BRITAIN REFUSES TO CHANGE POLICY TOWARD IRELAND

Parliament Votes Against Further Discussion of Controversy as Not Desirable at Present Time.

REDMOND MAKES BITTER ATTACK ON GOVERNMENT

Asquith Accepts Challenge to Have American Ambassador Probe Condition of Irish Prisoners.

London, October 18.—Parliament today after a set debate in the house of commons decided by a majority of 197 that it was undesirable at present to discuss Irish controversial domestic politics.

The Irish question was brought up by John Redmond, the nationalist leader, who introduced a motion to the effect that "the system of government at present maintained in Ireland is inconsistent with the principle for which the allies are fighting in Europe, and is, or has been, mainly responsible for the recent unhappy events and for the present state of feeling in that country."

An amendment to this motion, introduced by John F. D. Rawlinson, representing Cambridge university, declared that "it is not desirable at the present time to discuss controversial matters of domestic politics."

This amendment was adopted by a vote of 303 to 106, thus eliminating the Redmond motion.

Lloyd-George Peacemaker.

The debate reached a high level, notably the speech of Mr. Redmond, attacking the government administration of Ireland, especially with regard to questions of recruiting and the treatment of rebel prisoners and that of David Lloyd-George, secretary for war, who made a conciliatory speech which did much to remove the adverse impression created in the nationalist ranks by the speeches of Premier Asquith and the chief secretary of Ireland, Henry Edward Duke.

The remarks of the premier and the Irish secretary indicated that there was no present intention of the government to change its policy toward Ireland, which proved very disappointing to the Irish party. This disappointment was voiced by Joseph Devlin and John Dillon. The latter declared that the speeches of Mr. Asquith and Mr. Duke would be bitterly resented in Ireland because they gave no promise of the repeal of martial law. He said that the Sinn Fein movement in its early days was supported by the unionist party because it created an efficient weapon with which to strike at the constitutional movement in Ireland.

Conscription Not Planned.

Mr. Dillon further asserted that on Field Marshal Lord Kitchener's instructions the commanding general in Ireland was forbidden to speak to the nationalist leaders for three months.

It was made evident by the debate that the government has no intention of applying conscription to Ireland. On the contrary, Mr. Lloyd-George, while admitting that Irish enthusiasm at the beginning of the war had been stupidly mishandled, made a fervent appeal to all parties to help Mr. Redmond revive that lost enthusiasm and thus stimulate recruiting in Ireland.

A striking interlude was Premier Asquith's acceptance of Timothy Healy's challenge to send the American ambassador to investigate the treatment of the Irish rebel prisoners.

At the close of the debate the home secretary, Herbert L. Samuel, denied that there had been any ill treatment and declared that the prisoners had been treated more leniently than any political prisoners had ever been treated before.

HELD UP IN HIS MARKET AND IS ROBBED OF $32

J. D. Kimbrell was held up and robbed of $32 in his market at 32 Gartrell street Wednesday night about 8 o'clock. Three negroes were charged with being the offenders. The money was taken from the cash register.

SPOT COTTON CLOSED AT 18.60 WEDNESDAY

All Records for October Were Broken by the New Figure for the Staple.

With a jump of 60 points Wednesday, Atlanta spot cotton closed at 18.60, after the most sensational advance of years. All records for October were broken by the new figure.

There were a number of transactions at this price, but still holders of cotton for a large part are "sitting steady in the boat," awaiting the arrival of 20 cents for the staple.

According to views expressed about the exchange Wednesday, and especially at the rate cotton is advancing now, those who are holding for the 20-cent mark will be ready to sell their cotton before the close of Saturday's market. The gulf storm is said to have been the cause of the sudden rise.

Contracts for future delivery in New Orleans and New York also scored great gains Wednesday. On the strongest months in New Orleans prices soared more than $4 per bale.

HUGH DORSEY PAYS VISIT TO THE FAIR DESPITE THE RAIN

Hugh M. Dorsey, democratic nominee for governor of Georgia, braved the elements yesterday and went out to Lakewood to see the exposition.

He saw it—everything there is to be seen, which is a lot; and he spent most of the day perambulating among the exhibits in the buildings, the tents, the live stock pens and the poultry and dog shows.

At noon, as the guest of Ivan Allen, president of the Southeastern Fair association, the next governor of Georgia and a party of distinguished friends had luncheon in the lunch room conducted by the Equal Suffrage Association of Georgia for the benefit of the Co-Operative Working Girls' home.

Mrs. Amelia Woodall, who has supervision over the lunch room, and the Home girls who are assisting her in kitchen and dining room, having had previous notice of Mr. Dorsey's visit, had the guests' table especially decorated, and as neat and attractively arranged as was possible.

LEFT BY HUSBAND, DONS TROUSERS TO "HOBO" HOME

Columbus, Ga., October 18.—(Special.) Deserted by her husband, Mrs. Mary Bush, 16 years old, a bride of only a few weeks, donned male attire and tried to "hobo" it back to her home in Anniston, Ala. She boarded an outgoing freight train here late last night, but became so cold and uncomfortable perched between two freight cars that she left the train at Beallwood, in the suburbs of the city.

A man who saw her near a residence there thought she was a burglar and telephoned the county officers, who went out and took her in charge. Then she told her story. She was turned over to the Associated Charities, who wired her people in Anniston. Her name was Mary Bennett before she married.

Students on Strike As Result of Trouble With Faculty Member

Clarkesville, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—Trouble between Professor W. T. Garrett, a member of the faculty of the Ninth District Agricultural school, and the student body, led today to a walk-out on the part of the greater number of dormitory students of that institution. For more than two weeks there has been a great amount of strife between the professor and the student body. For the past few nights a riot has occurred and some damage has been done to the building.

The walk-out follows a meeting of the trustees of the institution and their investigation of the trouble existing. Following the investigation the trustees refused to dismiss Professor Garrett.

The students contend that the cause of the trouble is the peculiar method of Professor Garrett in the management of the school.

The students who are leaving today are going to other institutions or else to their homes.

ATLANTA JARRED BY EARTHQUAKE LATE WEDNESDAY

Earth Tremors Are Felt All Over Georgia and Also in Many Cities of Other States.

INFORMATION SOUGHT BY STATE GEOLOGIST

At the Statehouse Electric Lights Went Out and for Two Hours Candles and Gas Light Were Used.

Atlantans felt distinct seismic shocks yesterday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock during the most pronounced wind and rain storm of the season. No damage was done.

The disturbance was general over the state, as is indicated by wires to The Constitution from other points throughout the state.

Downtown skyscrapers trembled from the shocks, as did the smaller buildings in the residential districts. The first tremor occurred at four minutes and fifty seconds after 4 o'clock, and the second, which was milder than the first, at six minutes and ten seconds after 4.

Second 'Quake of Year.

As the nearest seismograph is located at Mobile, Ala., it was impossible to ascertain the intensity of the quake, which is the second felt in Atlanta this year. Seismic tremors of similar force occurred in the afternoon of February 21, 1916.

Thousands of persons in all parts of the city felt Wednesday's disturbances, keeping the telephones of the weather bureau and newspapers busy for an hour and more.

Candles in Statehouse.

Considerable excitement was caused on the second and third floors of the state capitol by the earthquake, which was distinctly felt by everybody on those floors, but seems not to have been felt on the ground floor at all. Young women employees rushes out of some of the offices and the elevator operator abruptly abandoned his elevator to ascertain what the matter was. State Game Commissioner Charles S. Arnow, whose office is on the southeast corner of the third floor, said that he not only felt the shocks but could see the walls of the building and the office furniture moving.

The electric lights in the capitol were out of commission from shortly after 3 o'clock until near 5, the hour of closing. Abandoned gas jets were lit and even candles improvised in some instances to furnish light for statehouse officials. Lights were also put out of commission in many other parts of the city.

Officials Badly Frightened.

S. W. McCallie, state geologist, was unable to account for the disturbance, but is investigating. With this in view he asks that persons over the state in all parts where the tremors were felt communicate with him that he might be aided in his inquiry.

Mr. McCallie did not feel the shocks. He was in the basement of the capitol at the time. He reached the first floor, however, just at the moment statehouse attaches, legislators and politicians were rushing into the corridors to ascertain if the building was about to fall.

Every building in the downtown district felt the quiver. The mayor noticed it in his office in the city hall. Pictures danced on the walls of offices in the big skyscrapers. The panes in the office of Theo W. Martin, in the seventeen story Third National bank building, rattled noisily.

Attorney Lamar Hill, in his offices in an upper story of the seventeen story Hurt building, had to hold a revolving book case to keep it from toppling to the floor.

One of the most frightened persons in the territory was Mrs. E. Dukehart, of Decatur, a victim of the great earthquake in Charleston in August, 1886. Mrs. Dukehart was in her sitting room when the windows began to rattle, and unattached articles on the mantel board and pieces of furniture began to dance. She fled to the front

Bandits Hold Up Santa Fe Express; 2 Trainmen Slain

After Looting Mail Train Near Bliss, Okla., Robbers Escape in Automobile. Special Police on Trail.

Bliss, Okla., October 18.—Santa Fe Mail-Express train No. 5, southbound, was held up and robbed by a band of robbers near here at 8:57 o'clock tonight.

An express messenger and baggageman whose names have not been learned were shot and killed by the bandits.

The robbers, after looting the train, escaped in an automobile. A special train of police has been sent from Perry, it is reported, and have taken up the trail of the robbers, the number of which is unknown.

It is stated that the safe in the express car was blown to atoms. The amount of money and valuables secured by the band, said to have been composed of six men, is not known.

The express clerk killed, a man named Norman, is said to have been riddled with buckshot.

HURRICANE CAUSES BUT LITTLE DAMAGE

Pensacola and Mobile Chief Sufferers--Two Lives Lost, Many Small Vessels Sunk and Buildings Unroofed.

The south was swept by a hurricane yesterday which drove across the middle gulf states, taking a toll of two lives and causing property and marine losses.

Pensacola and Mobile were the chief sufferers. One person was killed at each place and buildings were unroofed, telephone and telegraph wires suffered damage; ships were sunk and beached.

At Pensacola the wind velocity reached a maximum of 114 miles with 110 miles at Mobile, but in neither city was the property loss anything like as great as that caused by the hurricane of last July.

Small Vessels Sunk.

Mobile city itself suffered little real damage, but shipping in the harbor did not fare so well, two small vessels being sunk and four beached. Some damage to train sheds and terminals also resulted.

At Pensacola one small steamer went down, another vessel is missing, three fishing boats went ashore and two larger vessels were damaged when they came together during the blow. Telephone and telegraph wires were prostrated for many hours, the city being cut off entirely from the outside world from early morning until early night.

Although its intensity lessened as the storm swept inland, southern Alabama suffered materially. At Opp, a manufacturing plant was destroyed and houses were unroofed. At Troy, buildings were unroofed and poles blown down.

Citrus Crops Escape.

In southern Alabama timber also was reported to have been badly damaged, but reports were that the citrus crops in that state and western Florida had not suffered greatly.

Torrential rains accompanied the blow, 10.88 inches falling at Burrwood, La., and the fall being heavy throughout southern Mississippi, Alabama and even in parts of Georgia, the state camp at Macon being damaged by wind and rain.

The storm had passed far inland by nightfall with very decreased intensity, but the rains continued and local rains were forecast for Thursday.

LESS THAN $10,000 DAMAGE IN MOBILE.

Mobile, Ala., October 18.—Mobile was battered for about two hours and a half this forenoon by the tropical hurricane and when the storm had cleared shortly before noon less than $10,000 damage had been caused in the city proper, according to estimates made tonight after inspection of the residence and business sections, and only minor damage was done to vessels in the harbor. One fatality, a negro woman, killed by a live wire, was reported and no reports of persons injured were received by the police.

CORN CLUB BOYS COME TO ATLANTA FOR GREAT FAIR

Despite Horrible Weather Conditions of Wednesday, Over 6,000 Atlantans and Visitors Go to Lakewood Grounds.

IVAN ALLEN OPTIMISTIC OVER BIG ATTENDANCE

Believes Great Crowds of the Next Few Days Will Easily Make Up for Loss of Receipts on Wednesday.

Weather conditions were decidedly bad for exposition purposes all of yesterday, but regardless of the downpour and of the wind, the official records showed last night that a total of 6,720 persons passed through the turnstiles of the big show at Lakewood between the opening and the closing of the gates.

The fair officials were by no means dismayed by the unfavorable pranks of the elements, and, with clear weather and a rise of temperature promised by the government weather observer for today, they retired last night full of hope and optimism.

"Following the wonderful attendance records of Monday and Tuesday, the storm could not have come at a time when its bad effects would have been less felt," said Ivan E. Allen, president of the Southeastern Fair association, yesterday. "I am glad that it came after children's day, if it had to come at all.

"Of course," he said, "the rain was an unfortunate occurrence, but we are by no means discouraged, and we do not want the public to be. In a way, too, it has proven an advantage, especially to a few tardy exhibitors, and will be to the public, in that it affords such exhibitors an opportunity to get their displays all installed and their booths and show enclosures decorated and fixed up in attractive and finished style, such as they have not had time to do, and could not do with crowds on the grounds, such as we have had since the fair opened.

Everything in Ship-Shape.

"Also, as was inevitable, when opening day arrived it found certain details of our work on and about the grounds and buildings uncompleted. This dull day, coming as it did while the week is young, enabled us to get everything in ship-shape and put on the finishing touches, where they had not been put on, and which work crowds of sight-seers made next to impossible.

"I hope the public of Georgia will view this dull day in the same spirit of optimism in which the fair management views it, and help make up for today's deficiency in admission receipts in an increased attendance during the days to come.

"I am sure the public will do this, and if such is the case, and we have anything like fair weather during the rest of the week, this day's losses will have been entirely compensated."

From the standpoint of programmed attractions, there was practically nothing doing on the fair grounds Wednesday. The Grand Circuit races were called off for the day, and the card scheduled was set ahead and stands for today. This includes the trot against time and his own record by Lee Axworthy, the world's champion trotting stallion, which was expected yesterday to hang up a new mark for trotting on a Georgia harness course, if not to lower his own world record of 1:58¼, made a week ago last Saturday at Lexington.

Track Out of Commission.

The track at Lakewood, of course, was entirely out of commission, even for exercising purposes, during the lulls in the rain. All horses were kept off of it to avoid damaging it, and with a few hours of dry weather it will be up to its same splendid condition of last Monday and Tuesday, when horsemen pronounced it one of the best in the country.

Judges were busy throughout the day Wednesday in all departments of the fair, and did their work unimpeded by too many on-lookers.

During the extremely high wind of the middle of the day one of the big tents housing one section of the automobile exhibit was blown down, as was the tent containing the Boys' Agricultural school. No one was injured in the collapse of either canvas, however, and the damage was nominal.

The carnival attractions of the Great Dominion shows struggled through the rain and wind of the afternoon, making the best of things, but closed up late in the day and Larkland was dark during the evening. The horse show program for Wednesday also was postponed to tonight.

Despite the downpour approximately 1,000 Georgia Corn club boys came to Atlanta Wednesday morning, and will remain during the rest of the week. Immediately the lads had delivered their personal effects to the homes in Atlanta to which they had been assigned, the lads hurried out to the fair grounds. There they were taken in tow by the boy scouts, and, disregarding the inclemency of the weather, spent the afternoon circulating among the exhibits and having the time of their lives. The boys have a display of about 300 feet in length in the Agricultural building, and a most creditable one it is.

The girls of the canning clubs and the members of the boys' and girls' poultry and pig clubs, several hundred of them, accompanied the corn club boys during most of the perambulations on the fair grounds, and shared in the afternoon's "rainy day" hilarity. Every county in Georgia is represented by the boys and girls.

Judging at the dog show was on during a portion of Wednesday and was witnessed by a large number of fanciers who took a great and professional interest in it, regardless of whether or not they were individually exhibitors.

Awards Are Announced.

The following awards were announced:

German Shepherds—Puppy class, Miss Mary Goddard's Prince; novice class, Miss Mary Algood Jones' Teddy; open class, Miss Mary Goddard's Prince.

English Bulldogs—Puppy class, A. E. Lindstrum's West End Bully; novice class, T. C. Swann's Lucky Duke; American breeders' class, first Winship Nunnally's Brother Jonathan; second A. E. Lindstrum's Presiding Elder; third F. J. Duhn's Woodcraft Mediator.

In the judging of the Percheron horse division, the premiums offered by the Percheron Society of America, Chicago, all were won by the Glenmore Farms, Jefferson City, Tenn., whence came all of the Percheron stock on exhibit at the fair. This herd of horses, though in itself is a sight worth going miles to see, as a prettier bunch of fancy draft animals could not be found in the country. It is the largest exhibit of Percheron horses ever shown in the south.

FORMER OFFICER AND WOMAN HELD FOR TRIAL TODAY

George N. Bulloch, 42 years old, formerly of 74 Walton street, and a member of the Atlanta police force until recently, when he resigned at a meeting of the board of police commissioners, under charges in connection with Mrs. J. C. Harley, of 129 Spring street, was again arrested last night about 9 o'clock, with Mrs. Harley, by Detectives Cochran, Doyal and Rosser. They were charged with disorderly conduct, and Bulloch was placed under a $500 bond, which he made.

The detectives say that Mrs. Harley and Bulloch's two-year-old little girl, who was brought to police headquarters also, were found in a vacant house at 152½ Auburn avenue. Bulloch was arrested when he arrived a few minutes later.

Bulloch had been helping his wife pack up their belongings at the Walton street house Wednesday afternoon, and it is charged that he took the child away some time during the afternoon. The police say that he and Mrs. Harley were preparing to leave town with the child when they were arrested.

SWINE DEALERS DINE AT PIEDMONT HOTEL

Prominent hog breeders who are attending the Southeastern fair were entertained Wednesday night at the Piedmont hotel with a banquet. Around the table were men who are rated as experts along the lines of hog breeding throughout the country. After the dinner several short informal talks were made and those present spent the time getting acquainted. The swine exhibits at the fair are the center of interest. Several thousand dollars' worth of hogs are on display there.

SHORTHORN ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED IN GEORGIA

The Georgia Shorthorn and Breeders' association was organized at an enthusiastic meeting at the Piedmont hotel last night.

A number of men, who are prominently connected with the American Shorthorn and Breeders' association, were present and made interesting talks.

The Shorthorn movement, it was stated, was started in Georgia about two years ago, by the Central of Georgia railroad. J. F. Jackson, their agricultural agent, in speaking of the beginning of the movement, stated that last year the road lent to progressive farmers of the state, 45 registered Shorthorn cattle and this year would bring to Georgia 45 more.

The officers elected last night follow:

President, E. G. Willingham, of Macon; first vice president, J. D. Weaver, Dawson; second vice president, J. F. Jackson, Savannah; third vice president, E. T. Edwards, Athens; secretary and treasurer, T. G. Chastain, Atlanta.

The members enrolled follow: W. A. Winburn, president Central of Georgia railroad; J. F. Jackson, W. T. Bennett, J. D. Weaver, R. F. Sheiden, Georgia Agricultural college; Macon and Dublin railroad, J. J. Brown, E. F. Edwards, P. D. Hall, F. W. Harding, of Chicago, secretary of the American Shorthorn Cattle association; T. M. Fitzpatrick, C. Jones, a director of the American association; N., C. & St. L. Ry.; G. G. Lunsford, Lespedenza Farm, Tennessee; Theodore Martin, H. A. Pett, M. H. Persons, W. J. Mathis, A. W. Arnold, T. G. Chastain, J. N. McBrice, W. C. Rosenberger, of Chicago; W. B. Roddenberry, W. H. Spann, G. T. Stallings, J. A. Winslow, E. J. Willingham and Reid Carpenter.

The entrance fee was assessed at $5 per membership. The next meeting will be held in Atlanta during the Southeastern fair of 1917.

DASHED BUTTERMILK OVER HER HUSBAND EARLY IN MORNING

Mrs. "Dad" Elliott, wife of the pool-room keeper, who contested his divorce suit in superior court with the result that a verdict was returned denying the right of divorce to either husband or wife, has asked a correction in the story in The Constitution to the effect that she dashed buttermilk in the face of her husband at the breakfast table. She avers that the time of the buttermilk incident was 2 a. m., at which time she accuses her husband of coming home from a visit to his alleged affinity.

DEATH STOPS SUIT FOR DIVORCE FILED AGAINST SWILLING

The death at the Grady hospital this morning at 1:15 o'clock of R. E. Swilling, of Alpharetta, has put a stop to the suit for divorce filed by his wife this week.

While R. E. Swilling lay desperately ill at Grady, a deputy sheriff was on his way Wednesday to the hospital to serve divorce papers.

Swilling had been struck by the automobile of T. W. Brooke, of 189 Crew street, Monday night at Washington and Clark streets. He sustained internal injuries and a probable fracture of the skull.

Prior to his injury, Mrs. Swilling instituted proceedings for divorce. The papers went on file at the courthouse Wednesday afternoon, and were put in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Dan Goodlin for service. Goodlin was en route to the hospital, when he was apprised of the fact that the defendant's condition was critical.

The Swillings lived in Alpharetta, Ga., and were married in January, 1914. She charges cruel treatment, asserting that he frequently threatened her life, and that last September she was compelled to leave him.

BOARD TO REQUEST MONEY FOR REPAIRS AT SOLDIERS' HOME

Several matters of interest were dealt with at the quarterly meeting of the board of trustees of the Confederate Soldiers' home held yesterday. A revision of the rules and regulations governing the home, so as to include amendments made from time to time which have never been collected from the minutes, was adopted. The revised rules will be printed and available to the public at an early date.

The board decided to ask the governor for money, needed at once to make repairs essential to the preservation of the building, this sum not to be included in the regular monthly allowance drawn from the state treasury. Memorial resolutions for two deceased members, Judge Fred Foster, of Madison, and Judge H. W. Bell, of Jefferson, were adopted. Judge John P. Webb, of Gwinnett, and Frank H. Collier, of Wilkes, have been appointed to succeed these gentlemen on the board. The meeting yesterday was presided over by Vice President R. Jeff. Lawrance, of Marietta. A new president to succeed the late Judge Bell will be elected at the January meeting.

How to Keep Your Car Looking Fresh and New

Never use ordinary soaps and cleansing reagents for washing your car, as they will invariably destroy the gloss, cause checking of the varnish and make the car look dingy and old. Use only Magiclean automobile cleanser, specially prepared for the purpose. A handful of Magiclean, costing only a few cents, in a bucket of water, quickly cleanses and brightens, and preserves the paint, making an old car look almost as good as new. Get Magiclean at any auto supply house or garage, or send ten cents for sample to Magiclean Company, Atlanta, Georgia.—(adv.)

CHEERING CROWDS GREET PRESIDENT

Wilson Given Great Demonstrations on His Trip to Chicago, Where He Delivers Three Addresses Today.

Syracuse, N. Y., October 18.—(On board President Wilson's Special Train.)—President Wilson was greeted by cheering crowds at ten New York cities and towns during brief stops made this afternoon and tonight as he passed through the state on his way to Chicago where he is to deliver three addresses tomorrow. At Syracuse he got his first glimpse, during the campaign, of red lights burning in his honor.

The president refused to make extended speeches, but in each town he thanked the crowds briefly for coming to see him. At Albany he said:

"I am a very poor hand, my friends, at commending myself. You all know just exactly what has been done by the present administration and you know just as well as I do how to judge it, so that I am perfectly content to leave myself in the hands of the jury."

At Oneida tonight a man in the crowd shouted:

"Hurrah for the second Abraham Lincoln."

"I am afraid I can't play that game," the president called back.

Mr. Wilson appeared on the observation platform of his private car at Harmon, Poughkeepsie, Albany, Schenectady, Amsterdam, Fonda, Utica, Rome and Oneida before reaching Syracuse. Stops of more than five minutes were made here and at Albany, but at the other places the train paused only for a minute or two.

Skin Torn Off Finger.

The president's hand was shaken so vigorously at Albany that the skin was torn off a finger on his right hand and for several minutes he stood with a bloody handkerchief in one hand, shaking hands with the other.

"It's good red blood, anyway," called out a man.

Tonight Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the white house physician, bound up the injured finger, and Mr. Wilson used his left hand in greeting those who met him.

At several stops local democrats had engaged bands which played when Mr. Wilson appeared. Here at Syracuse the biggest demonstration of the day was staged. Members of a democratic club marched alongside the train as it ran through the city, and red lights flared. Democratic speakers in automobiles addressed the crowds which lined the tracks.

As the president's train passed through West Albany the engineers on nearly a score of locomotives blew their whistles shrilly. Local politicians boarded the train at several stops and met Mr. Wilson.

Tomorrow morning the president's train is to make brief stops in Indiana. He will arrive in Chicago at 11:50 o'clock.

Three Addresses Today.

Chicago, October 18.—President Wilson will make three addresses in Chicago tomorrow.

At 1 p. m. he will address the Press club of Chicago, at a luncheon. At 4 p. m. he will address a non-partisan mass meeting for women only, at the Auditorium. Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, former superintendent of the Chicago public schools, will preside, and Miss Jane Addams will occupy a seat in a box with Mrs. Wilson.

At 8 p. m. President Wilson will deliver an address at the third annual meeting of the New Citizens' Allegiance at the Stock Yards pavilion. The president will arrive here at 11:50 a. m. and leave at 11:45 p. m. for the east. While here he will confer with party leaders at western democratic headquarters.

Yaarab Temple of Mystic Shrine Is Planning for Thanksgiving Ceremonial

Members of Yaarab Temple of the Mystic Shrine yesterday received postal cards from Potentate Andrews apprising them of the fact that on or about November 28 a monster Thanksgiving ceremonial will be held in the Auditorium in Atlanta, and that it behooves each true believer to get busy and rustle up some "fresh meat" that the ceremonial could be one of real Thanksgiving.

In this connection it is generally understood that the only way the novices will participate in the Thanksgiving part will be if they are able to walk home after it is all over, instead of being carted out the back door to the near-by hospital.

The exact date of the oasis orgie has not been definitely fixed and the preliminary desert doings have not been decided upon, but it has been generally decreed by the potentate to arrange for a monster demonstration to wind up the present fiscal year.

The various committee chairmen will confer with the potentate within the next few days and when all arrangements have been made a formal announcement will be issued, but in the meantime all nobles are reminded that to make a real thanksgiving ceremonial "fresh meat" is absolutely necessary.

RAIN WILL CEASE TODAY.

Predict Mercury Will Begin to Climb by Midday.

The weather man predicts a temperature of not lower than 45 degrees for Atlanta and vicinity early today and expresses the opinion that the mercury will begin to climb at midday, and by Friday or Saturday it will assume its normal mark.

The lowest recorded Wednesday was 50 degrees. This was at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and it was not expected to go much lower before night. High winds and a continuous rainfall marked the whole day.

There is no prospect of frost in this vicinity for some time to come, states the report, and the drop in temperature with the accompanying winds is a cool wave caused by the tropical storm now being felt by the gulf coast states.

The prediction of the local weather office is that the rain will cease by noon today or early afternoon, to be succeeded by clear skies and fair weather. By Friday the forecast is for clear skies, with rising temperatures. The tropical storm is moving northeastward, but will not reach Atlanta with any degree of force because of the low barometric area in the New England states.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

Meat Eaters' Backache

Meat lovers are apt to have backaches and rheumatic attacks. Unless you do heavy work and get lots of fresh air, don't eat too much meat. It's rich in nitrogen and helps to form uric acid—a solid poison that irritates the nerves, damages the kidneys and often causes dropsy, gravel and urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills help weak kidneys to throw off uric acid. Thousands recommend Doan's for backache.

Here's Atlanta Proof:

W. S. Carroll, coal dealer, 303 Hill St., says: "My kidneys were weak and out of order. I had soreness across my back and loins and the kidney secretions passed irregularly. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Jacobs' Pharmacy, and they proved very satisfactory in relieving this trouble."

THE PULLMAN COMPANY

Convenience. Through the service of the Pullman Company it is not only possible to secure in advance accommodations in a car never crowded beyond its normal capacity, but it is possible to enjoy, while traveling, comforts and conveniences usually associated only with the most modern hotels in larger cities.

By building its own cars the Pullman Company has been able to test every innovation which might add to the convenience of its passengers. Constant ventilation, comfortable temperature, electric lights, electric fans, modern plumbing and other distinctive features of the Pullman car have been provided in spite of the difficulties arising from the natural limitations of car construction, and the fact that these conveniences must at all times be available while the car is moving from place to place.

A brief comparison of the early Pullman car, with its oil lamps, coal stove and almost entire lack of conveniences, with the modern steel-armored sleeping or parlor car, sanitary, electrically lighted, automatically ventilated, steam-heated and supplied with every comfort and convenience that ingenuity can devise, testifies to the progress which has been made by the Pullman Company in fifty years of continuous service to the traveling public.

RIGHTS FOR WOMEN DENIED BY BISHOPS

Proposal to Admit Women to Sit as Delegates in General Episcopal Convention Is Rejected.

St. Louis, October 18.—Women were denied equal rights with men in two actions today by the house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal general convention here.

A proposal to admit women to sit as delegates in the general convention was rejected, while a request from the Rt. Rev. Logan H. Roots, bishop of Hankow, to be allowed to permit women to membership in his advisory council was denied. The house suggested, it was stated, that the bishop might create an auxiliary council of women.

The proposal to give women equal rights with men in the convention is now on the calendar of the house of deputies and, should the house of deputies approve the proposal, it would go to the house of bishops for reconsideration.

The house of bishops will suggest in its report to the house of deputies that the Ten Commandments be printed in the prayer book in both their shortened and full forms and that clergymen be given optional use of either, it was stated.

Washington's Prayer.

Efforts to have the prayer of George Washington, uttered when he laid down the supreme command of the federal armies, adapted and substituted for the present prayer "for our country," in the work of common prayer, were inaugurated in the house of deputies with the result that a prayer, recommended by the commission on the prayer book, was recommitted to the comission with the suggestion that it consider the Washington prayer.

Discussion of the revision of the evening prayer was concluded today, with the minor changes agreed upon. In the main these looked toward a greater liturgical flexibility and the dropping of archaic phrases.

CUTICURA IS GOOD FOR YOUR SCALP

And Makes Your Hair Grow. Liberal Sample of Soap and Ointment Free.

The following is the "Special Cuticura Treatment" for the hair. Make a parting and rub it gently with the Ointment. Continue partings until whole scalp skin has been gone over. Next morning shampoo with Cuticura Soap and hot water. This treatment does much to keep the scalp clean and free from dandruff, and promote natural hair-growing conditions. Cuticura Soap has also proved most valuable for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

"My little girl was three months old when her head began to break out with little pimples which itched terribly. We had her treated but the humor spread all over her head, and in a few days there was not a particle of hair left. Her head was inflamed and as red as scarlet. She was fretful and could not sleep but a few minutes at a time.

"I noticed Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and I got one box of the Cuticura Ointment and one cake of the Cuticura Soap. They seemed to cool her head, and in three weeks she was entirely healed." (Signed) W. C. Truman, Fordsville, Ky., March 27, 1916.

MANY CHANGES IN RATES PROPOSED BY RAILROADS

G. E. Boulineau Sets Forth Position of Carriers at Rate Hearing.

The following changes in the Georgia rates on dry goods, clothing and thread were proposed to the Georgia railroad commission, at the rate hearing by G. E. Boulineau, assistant general freight agent of the Georgia railroad, Wednesday:

To adopt the southern classification rates and descriptions on dry goods, not otherwise specified.

To adopt the southern classification on clothing and garments.

To change the present sixth class rating on cotton piece goods to fifth class.

To adopt the southern classification ratings and descriptions on factory products, such as hosiery, knit underwear, etc.

Cotton Bag Ratings.

To adopt the southern classification rating of fourth class on cotton bags.

To adopt the southern classification rating and description on cordage, with the exception of cotton rope, upon which fifth class is proposed.

To adopt the southern classification rating and description on thread, except ball sewing thread, for which fifth class is proposed.

To adopt the southern classification rating and description upon cotton warp or yarn.

To adopt the southern classification rating and description on cotton batting.

To adopt the southern classification ratings and descriptions on cotton belting, blankets, tarpaulins, mixed cotton and woolen jeans and mixed cotton and woolen goods.

First Class Applied.

On cotton garments, such as overalls, shirts, etc., first class is applied interstate. The carriers are seeking to eliminate the descrimination in the Georgia interstate rates, placing them on a parity with the southern classification interstate.

An advance from sixth to fifth class is being asked on cotton piece goods.

New rates on flour, representing increases over the present rates, were set forth by J. N. Steadwell, assistant general freight agent of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, who asserted that the present rates were made low in order that in the earlier days of flour mills in Georgia they might compete with western millers. The conditions responsible for the adoption of the present schedules of rates on flour in Georgia, Mr. Steadwell said, no longer justify the present rate adjustment, and on this ground the carriers are asking to be allowed to earn what they believe to be relatively reasonable rates on these commodities.

In lieu of the present rates on yarn spools and beams, the carriers are asking the southern classification rating of fourth class, for less than carloads, and sixth class for car loads, minimum of 20,000 pounds, which would result in a change on beams from standard sixth class rating to fourth class.

HURRICANE CAUSES BUT LITTLE DAMAGE

ports given out late today, the wind attained a maximum velocity of 115 miles an hour in a spurt of about five minutes' duration. The lowest barometer was 29.16 at 8:25 a. m. According to the weather bureau, the wind blew 91 miles an hour from 8 to 9 a. m. Other velocities recorded were 110 miles for a brief interval and later 115 miles an hour.

According to the local forecaster, while the maximum wind velocity for five minutes today was higher by eight miles than during the July 5 hurricane, the July storm recorded a velocity of 99 miles an hour for one hour, compared to 91 miles sustained velocity today.

City in Darkness.

Mobile's streets were in darkness tonight, but there appeared but little damage to electric circuits.

Only slight damage was done to residence property and minor losses caused in the business district, several plate glass windows being blown out of store buildings and some damage done to stocks of goods by water. The water, however, was not driven over the wharves, as in the July storm, and business houses along the river front escaped losses from water.

Railroad schedules from Mobile were maintained, but trains were running somewhat late. Street car service was stopped during the storm, but the company's lines were undamaged.

Notwithstanding citrus groves are carrying heavy fruit now, reports from nearby communities state the wind did not blow off the fruit and the orange and grapefruit crop appears safe.

ONE LIFE LOST AT PENSACOLA.

Pensacola, Fla., October 18.—Several vessels in the harbor here were sunk, numbers of small craft suffered damage, and one life was lost in the terrific tropical hurricane that swept through here today, at one time reaching a velocity of 114 miles an hour. Property damage in Pensacola itself was confined chiefly to roofs being blown off and plate glass windows destroyed.

The hurricane which swept inland from the gulf early today, isolated Pensacola and the surrounding territory until early tonight, when partial wire service was restored.

Reports from the United States navy aeronautic station near here were to the effect that it escaped with comparatively little damage, the newly completed permanent hangars having withstood the gale.

The one life reported lost was that of Daniel Cobb, cook on the small steamer Flanders, which was reported sunk two miles from here. Its crew was brought here tonight on the cruiser Dixie. No other injuries were reported and persons who were hurt here reported their injuries as cuts and bruises.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

J. J. Burchel Held Following John Tennant's Death.

J. J. Burchell, 42 years old, of 30 Orange street, is being held at police headquarters, charged with the murder of John B. Tennant, 31 years old, of 30 Garnett street, who died early Wednesday morning as the result of a knife wound in the left side, received early Sunday morning.

About 2 o'clock Sunday morning an ambulance was summoned to the corner of Windsor and Orange streets, where Tennant was found badly wounded. He was hurried to the Grady hospital, where he told physicians attending him that Burchell had cut him, while they were quarreling and scuffling. Tennant said that Barchell was in a drunken condition and that he was trying to get him to go home.

Tennant worked in the O. K. Barber shop. His father was in Atlanta Wednesday to accompany the body of his son to his home in Chester county, South Carolina. Tennant is survived by his young son, J. B. Tennant, Jr.; his father, J. M. Tennant; a brother, James Tennant, and four sisters, Mrs Irene Tennant, Mrs. Mattie Rains and Misses Sarah and Mary Tennant, all of Chester county, South Carolina.

COOK HELD BLAMELESS

Parents of Injured Boy Refuse to Prosecute.

When the case of the city against Philip Cook, secretary of state, was called Tuesday in recorder's court as the result of an auto accident in which little Frank Matthews was hurt, the parents refused to appear against Mr. Cook, upon the grounds that they were of the opinion that the injury to the child was purely accidental and Mr. Cook had done everything possible for the comfort of the injured child.

After the accident Mr. Cook rushed the child to St. Joseph's infirmary, where it was pronounced that the child was only slightly injured. The little fellow is now out at play again.

DECATUR COUNTY CATTLE WIN SEVERAL RIBBONS

Herds of Hereford cattle from Decatur county have attracted more than usual attention at the Southeastern fair. The herds entered by Shingler Brothers and the Chattahoochee Stock farm have carried off several prizes.

Clement Fairfax, owned by Shingler Brothers, was awarded the prize in the Hereford class and declared the senior champion of the Southern class. A heifer and a yearling owned by the same people also carried off ribbons. The herd entered by the Chattahoochee Stock farm carried off several ribbons in the contest.

JULES SCHLOSS WILL GO TO LARGER FIELD

Prominent Atlanta Advertising Man Will Soon Enter Business in New York.

Advertising experts and business men showed great interest Wednesday in the announcement that Jules B. Schloss, prominent Atlanta advertising man, will move to New York November 1 and after a short rest will re-enter the advertising field. Mr. Schloss has been a citizen of Atlanta for seven years and during his connection with this city has handled

JULES B. SCHLOSS.

some of the largest accounts in America.

In addition to being a practical advertising man, Mr. Schloss is a brilliant writer on economics. His writings have attracted attention of economists over the country and his advertising articles have been widely copied.

A number of advertising ideas that are now essential to every advertising campaign are children of his brain. He is recognized as an authority on advertising throughout the country.

Mr. Schloss has many strong friends in Atlanta who hate to see him leave.

His business ability coupled with his natural ability to make friends guarantee his success in a larger field.

ARKANSAS COMES TODAY TO ATLANTA ON WHEELS

Veritable State Fair Will Arrive This Afternoon for Twelve-Hour Visit.

Incidental to its fourth annual tour, the great exposition train, "Arkansas on Wheels," carrying a veritable state fair and 125 of the foremost citizens of the state of Arkansas, will arrive in Atlanta over the Southern railway at 3:30 this afternoon for a twelve-hour visit.

The train is a palatial all-steel train of Pullmans, with four immense exhibit, or exposition, cars, dining and commissary cars, and the tourists are of both sexes, among them being farmers, merchants, bankers, lawyers, doctors, teachers, preachers, state, county and city officials and representatives of every live chamber of commerce, trade board, business men's club, and practically every city and county in the state.

There is to be no speech-making in connection with the train's visit here, and immediately after its arrival at the Terminal station the visitors will be hurried by automobile to the Southeastern fair grounds for entertainment there during the afternoon and evening. The train is scheduled to leave Atlanta at 3:30 Friday morning for Seneca, S. C.

Thirteen States Traversed.

In all, thirteen states are to be traversed by the train before it completes its itinerary. These are Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

The program prepared for the entertainment of the visitors while they are Atlanta's guests follows:

(There will be no speech-making.)

3:30 P. M.—"Arkansas On Wheels," arrives at Terminal Station. Met by committee headed by Colonel F. J. Paxon, chairman, governor, mayor, presidents of Atlanta and State Chambers of Commerce, and former residents of Arkansas.

4:00 P. M.—Prompt. Cars leave Terminal Station for fair grounds. Ladies taken in autos by committee, headed by Mrs. S. E. Jacobs. Special street cars provided for other members of party, leaving viaduct on south side of Terminal Station.

4:30 P. M.—Arrive at fair grounds, inspect buildings and exhibits, and "take in" Larkland. Through the courtesy of President Ivan E. Allen, your gold guest badge will secure free admission to the fair grounds.

6:00 P. M.—Band concert in Woman's building, by Russellville band.

7:30 P. M.—Horse show; band concert by Weber's band; open air vaudeville, and mammoth fireworks display in front of grand stand.

In the big four exhibit or exposition cars Arkansas' wonderful resources are shown in attractive ways. More than 55 of the counties of the state have exhibits therein. Exhibits of the magnificent Arkansas apples that won the first prizes at the world's fairs in Chicago, St. Louis and at the recent great 'Frisco exposition, peaches from the world's greatest and largest apple orchard (4,000 acres), together with exhibits of cotton, corn, rice, alfalfa, potatoes, hay; products of Arkansas mines, coal, gold, silver, zinc, diamonds, etc.; special school exhibits, and in fact a veritable exposition, with representative citizens in charge of the exhibits to show and explain them.

Along with the train is carried a big 20-piece brass band, a male quartet, singers and speakers, and the single purpose of every one aboard the big train is merely to show Arkansas and her resources to the outside world.

There is absolutely no way on earth you can spend a cent on this train. Everything is free to everybody. A nice sack of the celebrated Arkansas unpolished rice, raised, milled and sacked especially for this trip, is given free to every housekeeper who visits the train.

ONLY HEAVY RAINS REPORTED ON COAST

Savannah, Ga., October 18.—Although storm warnings had been sent out to shipping along the South Atlantic coast, the storm center passed up from the gulf through Alabama, according to the weather bureau report tonight. Along the coast deluges of rain with a high wind were the only storm evidences. There were no reports of damage to shipping or property.

Cotton Brings 18.50 Cents.

Hartwell, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—Cotton brought 18½ cents in Hartwell today. Even higher prices are indicated.

PRICE IS THE NOMINEE.

Chairman Flynt Clears Up Situation in 27th District.

Clearing up confusion caused by rumors of contest for senator from the Twenty-seventh senatorial district, J. J. Flynt, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, announces that H. H. Price, of High Shoals, is the democratic nominee, and his name alone will be placed on the ticket.

Chairman Flynt has ruled as follows:

"That there having been no contest filed with the state committee, the nominee shall be the one named by the senatorial executive committee and properly nominated by the senatorial convention."

The action of the senatorial convention referred to by Chairman Flynt is as follows:

"Be it resolved, That Hugh H. Price is hereby declared to be the regular and duly constituted nominee of the democratic party for state senator for the twenty-seventh district in the primary of September 12, and as such nominee is entitled to and should receive the support of all democrats and participants in said primary in the general election."

STORM DOES DAMAGE TO GEORGIA COTTON

Columbus, Ga., October 18.—(Special.) A severe wind and rain storm did much damage to cotton in west Georgia this afternoon, especially in the section north of Columbus, where much cotton is open in the fields.

Funeral of W. R. DuPriest.

Americus, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—The funeral of William Robert DuPriest, who died at Moultrie yesterday, was held this morning at Ellaville, where he resided before moving to Colquitt county. He was well known and had many friends, and was connected with the Moultrie Packing plant for the past eight years. He is survived by a wife and four children, and mother, Mrs. E. N. DuPriest. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Meacham, of Moultrie.

Miss Marian Hay Marries Mr. E. Allison Thornwell

Miss Marian Hay, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., and Mr. E. Allison Thornwell, of Atlanta, were married Tuesday afternoon in Wilkesbarre, Pa., according to information received yesterday by close friends of Mr. Thornwell in Atlanta.

He and his bride will arrive in Atlanta Saturday, and be guests of a dinner in their honor at the Driving club Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter or Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Hay, of Wilkesbarre, and she visited Atlanta in the spring, being an attendant at the marriage of Miss Virginia Lipscomb and Mr. Joel Hurt, Jr., and she was a much-admired visitor at the time.

Mr. Thornwell is one of Atlanta's most representative young citizens, representing the Westinghouse interests here, and he has a host of friends in social life.

Driving Club Tea-Dance Event of Wednesday Afternoon

The tea-dance yesterday afternoon at the Piedmont Driving club was one of the largest and most enjoyable of the fall season. A company of two hundred and fifty attended and adding to the interest of the occasion were a number of charming out-of-town visitors.

One of the brightest parties of the afternoon was given by Miss Eloise Robinson in compliment to two popular visitors, Miss Eleanor Van Hook, of St. Louis, and Miss Mildred Wright, of Rome, the guests of Mrs. Bulow Campbell. There were twenty-eight guests.

Misses Jessie and Grace MacDonald, of Dorchester, Mass., who are visiting Misses Jane and Dottie Cowles, were guests of honor in Mr. Lynn Werner's party.

Mrs. Walter Howard and Misses Frances Newman entertained in honor of Mrs. Louise Richardson, of Vicksburg, Miss., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Richardson. Mrs. T. A. Hammond's guest, Mrs. Brooks Covell, of Philadelphia, shared honors with Mrs. Richardson. The other guests were Mrs. James H. Gilbert, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. John Grant, Mrs. Don A. Pardee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis entertained a party of twelve for their attractive guest, Miss Mary Webber Williams, of Augusta.

Mrs. W. C. Hall, Jr., entertained for Miss Jessie Adams, of Louisville, Ky., who is the guest of Mrs. Robert Witherspoon. Mrs. Witherspoon and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith, Jr., completed the party.

Mrs. Roby Robinson entertained a few friends.

Mrs. Luther Rosser, Jr., entertained for Miss Lalleah Adams, of Savannah. Mrs. Cam Dorsey and Mrs. George Lowndes, Jr., completed the party.

Others who had small parties were Mrs. H. M. Atkinson, Miss Dodson, Mrs. William Schroder, Mrs. C. R. Winship, Mrs. Henry Jackson, Mr. C. W. Outlaw, Mrs. W. F. Spalding.

For Miss Williams.

Mr. Henry Lyons will entertain at the dinner-dance at the Driving club Saturday evening in compliment to Miss Mary Webber Williams, of Augusta, who is the guest of Mrs. Jack Lewis.

Luncheon for Visitors.

Mrs. John Marshall Slaton entertained informally at luncheon yesterday at her home on Peachtree road in compliment to Mrs. De Los Blodgett, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. M. G. Porcher, of Cocoa, Fla., and Mrs. Charles G. Matthews, of Charleston, S. C.

The table had as its centerpiece a basket of roses.

Miss Crichton's Luncheon.

Miss Mary Crichton entertained at a pretty luncheon yesterday at her home on Piedmont avenue in compliment to Miss Caroline Blount and her guest, Miss Blanche Devine, of Carters, Ga. Pink rosebuds and lavender ageratum formed a large plateau which was the centerpiece of the table. The bon-bons were in pink and lavender and the ices were pink and in the shape of roses. The candles had pink shades and the place-cards were hand-painted in pink roses. Miss Crichton wore a becoming gown of blue taffeta and Georgette crepe. Miss Devine wore blue cloth trimmed in silver fox and her hat was of black velvet. Miss Blount wore blue cloth trimmed in moleskin and her black velvet hat was trimmed in paradise feathers. The guests were Miss Blount, Miss Devine, Miss Marion Dunson, Miss Margaret McCarty and Miss Eloise Robinson.

In the party will be Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peel, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Paine, Miss Preston, Miss Lamar Slaton, Miss Patty McGehee, Miss Isoline Campbell, Miss Dorothy Arkwright, Dr. E. G. Ballenger, Messrs. F. M. McGonigal, Stanley Mathewson, Neal Reid, Lamar Hill.

Argentine Red Masque Ball

The Red Masque ball to be given by the Argentine club on the evening of October 27, at the hall on East Pine street, promises to be the most brilliant event of the season among the dancing clubs.

The decorations and lighting effects for the occasion will be very unique, carrying out the red color scheme. All attending are expected to wear costumes with red as the predominating color, or formal dress. Several prizes will be awarded, as follows:

To the best costumed couple who have most originally employed red in their make-up, a beautiful silver loving cup will be presented.

A Waterman fountain pen will be given the stag with the most original costume.

In addition there will be two consolation prizes; also favors for each guest.

A committee of chaperons will be appointed to act as judges.

Dancing will begin promptly at 9 o'clock and continue uneil midnight, a grand march commencing the evening's program, during which the judges will decide the winners of the prizes.

An attendance of over two hundred is expected.

In Honor of Mrs. Gorman.

Miss Annie Mae Taurman's bridge party Tuesday afternoon was a very enjoyable affair, and a pretty compliment to Mrs. Ralph Gorman, a bride of September, who was Miss Margaret Boykin Heyward.

A color sceme of yellow and white was artistically carried out in the decorations, quantities of golden rod and nasturtiums adorning mantels and cabinets in parlor and living room, and vases of yellow and white roses being used in the dining room. The lights were shaded in yellow and the mints, bon bons and ices were in yellow and white.

The prize for top score at each table was a box of crepe de chine handkerchiefs, and the consolation was a yellow satin sachet. Mrs. Gorman was presented a dainty piece of lingerie.

Little Misses Louise and Nellie Heyward served punch.

The young hostess wore light blue tulle and taffeta, trimmed in gold, with clusters of French flowers, and the lovely young honor guest was gowned in white lace over pink. Mrs. W. H. Heyward wore yellow chiffon over satin.

Alliance Francaise.

This afternoon at 3:30, in the assembly room of the Carnegie library, Mme. Slifer will read the third and fourth acts of the play, "Catherine," by Henri Lavedan.

In these two acts, the author excels in portraying with a wonderful realism the difficulties met by the heroine in the castle of the Duc de Courtras, her husband. Henri Lavedan, Jean Richepin, the poet and academician, are now in New York attending the rehearsals of the play which will be given soon at the Theater Francais of New York.

Cecil Saul, the French comedienne of the Comedie Francaise, of Paris, will take the part of "Catherine."

Yaarab Band's Dance.

Every Shriner of Yaarab Temple is invited to the grand ball to be given by Yaarab's famous band on Friday evening next at East Lake Country club. Tickets are $1.50, which admits one Shriner and lady. All Shriners are to appear in full dress and fez.

Wrigley-Murphy.

One of the most interesting of the October weddings will be that of Miss Lenore Elizabeth Wrigley and Mr. John Gregory Murphy, which will take place on Tuesday morning at the Sacred Heart church.

The ceremony at 6:30 o'clock at nuptial mass will hold all the solemnity belonging to that beautiful service Rev. Father Horton will officiate.

No cards have been issued, but the fiends of the young people will be present. The only attendants will be the bride's sister, Miss Rosetta Wrigley, and Mr. Vincent Kane.

The bride-to-be is a strikingly pretty and attractive young woman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wrigley.

Mr. Murphy is the son of Mrs. Lula Lynch Murphy, and a grandson of the late Peter Lynch, one of Atlanta's pioneer and most representative citizens. A graduate of Marist college, Mr. Murphy is meeting with success in the real estate business, and is popular in business and socially.

Informal Luncheon.

Mrs. John M. Slaton entertained informally at luncheon yesterday at her country home, guests including only Mrs. DeLos Blodgett and Mrs. Matthews, of Washington city, and Mrs. Porcher, of Cocoa, Fla.

The table had tasteful decorations in flowers from the garden.

To Miss McGehee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Maddox will give a dinner-dance at home on November 3 in compliment to Miss Patty McGehee.

To Debutantes.

Miss Estelle Harsh, of Milwaukee, arrives on the 29th to visit Miss Margaret McCarty, and she will share honors with Miss McCarty at the many functions planned to mark Miss McCarty's debut.

Miss McCarty gives a luncheon Tuesday, the 31st, in compliment to Miss Harsh, and on the same evening Mr. and Mrs. George W. McCarty, Jr., will entertain for Miss McCarty and Miss Harsh at the Hallowe'en ball.

They will be included in Miss Caroline Blount's party at the dinner-dance at the Driving club Saturday, November 4.

On Tuesday, the 7th, Miss Helen McCarty will give a luncheon.

Wednesday, the 8th, Mr. Curry Moon will entertain at the tea-dance at the Driving club.

On Saturday, the 11th, Mr. and Mrs. Rucker McCarty will entertain at the dinner-dance at the Driving club.

Clay-Ramspeck.

A beautiful wedding in Decatur last night was that of Miss Nobie Estelle Clay and Mr. Robert C. W. Ramspeck, which took place at the Presbyterian church. A large congregation of friends was present.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Hunt, of Bristol, Va., and the attendants were:

Mrs. J. R. Glenn, of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. L. H. Cox, of Hapeville, Ga., matrons of honor; Miss Anne Trotti, maid of honor; Miss La Verna Thomas, of Americus; Misses Marie Clay Rounnelle Broadnax and India Hunt, bridesmaids; Mr. Ernest Ramspeck, best man; Messrs. Carl Ramspeck, Marion Clay, Crosson Berry of Griffin, Theo Ramspeck, groosmen; Messrs. George Jones and Robert Clay, ushers. Misses Viola Allen and Marian O'Kelley, were the flower girls, and William Schley Howard, Jr., ring bearer.

Miss Cliff Mable, at the organ, played the wedding music, and the entrance of the bridal party was preceded by an appropriate song by Miss Rebecca Green.

The church, brightly illuminated, had handsome decoration in palms and ferns, and the wedding scene was picturesque and impressive.

The bride, entering with her father, Mr. R. T. Clay, was charming in her wedding costume, the satin gown veiled with tulle, and the becoming veil of tulle, in which were caught sprays of orange blossoms. The gown made with satin train had graceful corsage drapery of Duchess lace and an embroidery of pearls gave finish. Her bouquet was a shower of bride roses and valley lilies.

The bridesmaids wore dainty gowns of green tulle over green satin, with trimming of silver lace and carried "ragged" pink dahlias. The matrons of honor were gowned in pink tulle over pink satin and the maid of honor in pink satin and silver lace. Their bouquets were of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Clay, the bride's mother, was gowned in gray crepe de chine and silver. Mrs. Ida Word Ramspeck, the groom's mother wore gray Georgette crepe and satin, Mrs. Eugene Hardeman, his sister, wore turquoise taffetas.

After the ceremony, a beautiful reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, one hundred guests forming the wedding company.

The house was decorated with artistic taste, pink the prevailing color, with foliage plants and smilax. The buffet table in the dining room was picturesque with pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramspeck went to New York on their wedding trip, and they will make their home in Newberry, N. C.

To Miss Lamar.

On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the church house, 16 Washington street, a reception will be given to Miss Stannie Lamar, the social service worker, who has recently come to St. Philip's cathedral. All the members of the congregation are cordially invited.

Ararat Grotto Harvest Ball.

Ararat Grotto will give a harvest ball tonight at their club rooms, corner of Forsyth and Mitchell streets. The ball rooms will be decorated with autumn leaves, pumpkins and other fall decorations. Special music, favors for the ladies, and refreshments served in true "Mooney" style are on the program.

This is one of the regular series dances of the Grotto to be held this fall. But plans and interest manifested indicate that it will be the most brilliant dance of the entire season. This dance is exclusively for members and their wives and sweethearts.

Ararat Grotto has two of the largest dance halls in the city. Both will be thrown open tonight to accommodate the crowd that is expected to attend the dance.

EVERYBODY SEES A CHANGE IN FATHER, SAYS GRATEFUL SON

Cobb County Farmer Suffered for Over 20 Years and Paid Out Thousands Trying to Get Well.

"My father has suffered from chronic stomach trouble for over 20 years and has paid out thousands of dollars on medicines and doctors," said G. W. Slayton, a well-known Cobb county farmer, who lives near Smyrna, a short distance out of Atlanta.

"We tried nearly everything trying to cure him, and he went off to the springs, thinking maybe the water would help him, but it just looked like nothing would reach his trouble. Then he tried dieting, and lived on liquid food until he almost starved—but even that failed to do any good, and he just kept going from bad to worse.

"I don't guess there ever was a case as stubborn as his, and if there ever was a confirmed dyspeptic he was one of them, and I guess he would have been one yet if it hadn't been for this Tanlac.

"The first we heard of this medicine was when my father saw an advertisement in the papers from parties he knew in Tennessee, who were friends of his, and he knew what they said about it was the truth—so he got it right away and began taking it.

"Well, sir, it just acted like magic—and everybody notices the change in father now; why, he is just like a different man, and sits down to the table and eats like a farm hand. Only yesterday, he ate pork and turnips for his dinner, and ate so much we were actually afraid he was overdoing the thing, but he laughed and said nothing hurts me now, and that he was hungry and expected to eat and make up for lost time.

"Now, when a medicine will do things like that, I think people ought to know about it, and I want to say right now I would not give one bottle of Tanlac for all the other medicines and health resorts in the country put together."

Tanlac is sold in Atlanta exclusively by Jacobs' Pharmacy.—(adv.)

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

This excellent, common-sense health measure being adopted by millions.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.—(adv.)

WORD "LIAR" USED AT TURNER PROBE

Gus Cantrell and Sam Donelson, Electrician's Assistant, Near Fight at Hearing—Probe Finished Wednesday.

The closing session of the investigation of charges that R. C. Turner, city electrician, discriminated against W. T. Proctor, of the Consolidated Engineering company, was marked by the use of the word "liar" toward a member of the city electrician's force by one of the witnesses.

The committee adjourned without going into executive session to make up their report to council and will meet one night next week for this purpose. It is very probable it will recommend the passage of an ordinance specifically setting down the authority of the electrician regarding the issuance of permits to electrical contractors in the city. This was the chief cause of complaint from Proctor. Several members of the committee expressed the opinion that if such steps were taken by council the whole situation would be greatly relieved and that the constant bickering between the electrical firms of the city and the city electrician would be in a measure stopped.

Word "Liar" Used.

Gus Cantrell, one of the witnesses called by Proctor, testified to certain delays he experienced in connection with a job and told the committee that the inspection by Sam Donelson, assistant to Turner, claimed certain faults that did not exist. Donelson objected to the statement.

"If you deny what I say," shot back Cantrell, "you are a liar."

"I'll see about this," Donelson muttered, and started toward the witness around the table. He was stopped by men in the room, among them being members of the committee and the city attorney. The matter was then dropped.

The close of the hearing was marked with a lengthy statement from Proctor claiming discrimination against him by the city electrician in that he had been repeatedly refused a permit.

F. B. Smith, who appeared at the first meeting of the committee as a witness, came up for the second time last night. He told the committee he wanted to offer them some facts relative to certain work done by a local contractor for the Prest-o-Lite company which had been turned down by Turner and yet accepted by the underwriters.

He told the committee he had made some personal investigations of the matter in question following the first meeting of the committee, and that in his opinion as an expert the attitude taken by Turner was wrong and that the work was entirely satisfactory.

Turner Raps Witness.

At this joint Turner jumped to his feet.

"What have you to do with this investigation other than as a witness when called on?" he asked.

"You are now in the business of selling roller ball bearings, I believe," he continued. "You are no longer in the electrical business. Just get on your roller bearings and roll away. This meeting can get along very well without your presence."

"I will roll away," Smith replied. "But as a citizen and taxpayer I think I have a right to lay this matter before the committee."

His appeal was seconded by the attorneys for Proctor, Jack Brooks and A. E. Wilson, and objected to by Carl Hutcheson, attorney for Turner.

When appealed to directly the committee voted that the matter was outside the case and that if any questions were to be asked Turner on the case they should come from the attorneys for the prosecution. They also voted to rule out the evidence as not relevant to the investigation.

The final statement by Proctor brought forth from him the accusation that none of the contractors in the city, not members of the association, were treated fairly by Turner.

In reply to that, Turner read letters to practically every electrical contractor in the city from his office finding fault with their work and stating that if corrections were not made he would have them in police court.

"It seems to me that electricians of this city are entirely too independent, both those who are members of this alleged combination and those who operate independently, as Mr. Proctor styles them," Turner declared. "I am always finding fault with some one and none of them are allowed to do a job and get away with something that is contrary to the code of this city."

porch for fear the building would collapse.

Sheriff Ready to Vacate.

Deputy Sheriff Plennie Miner and Chief George Mathieson were in the latter's office at county police headquarters at the time of the shocks. The desk telephone began to manifest a kittenish disposition, and when the windows began to slide, both the deputy sheriff and county chief arose from their seats in preparation for hurried exits.

Mrs. Walter G. Cooper, at 155 Peeples street, wife of the secretary of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, was placing an order over the telephone with W. A. Byers, a groceryman on Gordon street, a half mile distant. Both Mrs. Cooper and the groceryman felt the shocks. There was a sudden halt in the conversation.

"Did you feel the same thing I did?" asked Mr. Byers.

"I think we'd better hang up the phone," said Mrs. Cooper. "Something's happening to the earth."

She later called Mr. Cooper over the telephone, and was informed of the two quakes, Mr. Cooper having telephoned the weather bureau for information.

Other buildings reporting tremors were the Equitable, Ponce de Leon apartments, Fourth National bank, Atlanta National bank and Empire building.

Distinct Shocks in Marietta.

Shocks were very distinct in Marietta, where window panes were broken in at least two homes, and a small safe in an office on the town square was shaken off its stone base.

The day set in with a disagreeable drizzle and rapidly rising winds. The mercury was low during the morning, and dropped still lower as the afternoon progressed. The winds also increased, and when dusk fell the streets were lashed by stiff breezes from the northeast, whipping a rain that fell in unbroken downpours.

Weather Forecaster von Herrmann last night predicted that the rain and winds would continue this morning, with a decided drop in the mercury.

Quake Frightens Dalton.

Dalton, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—Several distinct earth tremors or seismic disturbances were felt here this afternoon at 10 minutes after four o'clock, shaking the houses, rattling windows and greatly exciting the inhabitants. This is the fourth time the disturbance has been observed here, and it seems to be local, gradually diminishing in force and not being noticeable further than 20 miles away. The earthquake this afternoon was decidedly more severe than the former occurrences. The phenomena was accompanied by a subterranean rumbling like thunder. There were three distinct shocks, seemingly moving from west to east.

Shock Visits Athens.

Athens, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—Very perceptible earthquake tremors were felt here about 4 o'clock by persons in public buildings and office buildings. Students on the university campus felt two distinct shocks.

Shock at Lyerly.

Lyerly, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—An earthquake was felt here at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The tremor was the heaviest ever felt and lasted nearly two minutes. Houses shook.

People Scared in Griffin.

Griffin, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt here this afternoon at 4 o'clock, just 40 seconds apart. There were badly scared people, but no damage done.

No Damage in Montgomery.

Montgomery, Ala., October 18.—Buildings were shaken and residents were frightened here at 4 o'clock this afternoon when a distinct earthquake shock was registered, lasting about 5 seconds. The local weather bureau announced that the shock came from the northwest, and was of "intensity 5." No damage was reported.

Report From Talladega.

Talladega, Ala., October 18.—A severe earthquake shock was felt here at 4:10 p. m. today. Large buildings and dwellings trembled, and hundreds of persons ran from their homes.

Distinct Earthquake Shock.

Chattanooga, Tenn., October 18.—A distinct earthquake shock lasting about four or five seconds was felt in the Chattanooga district this afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock. One woman was thrown out of her chair by the tremor, it was reported.

In Birmingham District.

Birmingham, Ala., October 18.—The entire Birmingham district felt a severe earthquake shock at 4 o'clock. Numerous chimneys were knocked down. Office buildings were quickly emptied. They seemed to feel the shock with special severity.

Nashville Feels Shock.

Nashville, Tenn., October 18.—A slight earth shock was felt here shortly after 4 o'clock today. No damage reported.

Shock at Grantville.

Grantville, Ga., October 18.—At four minutes after 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Grantville felt a distinct earthquake shock which lasted ten or fifteen seconds and shook up some dishes in Banks Brothers' store.

Felt in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., October 18.—A slight earth shock was felt over a wide area in Louisville at 4:05 o'clock today. Police reported that tall buildings noticeably were rocked downtown, while in the outlying districts, pictures swayed and chinaware rattled.

Heavy Rains in Thomasville.

Thomasville, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—As a result of the tropical strom passing up from the gulf, Thomasville has been visited today by torrential rains, accompanied by high winds. No serious damage is reported in this immediate vicinity and it is thought that the worst of the storm has passed by. The rains have been the heaviest falling here in a long time.

West Point Reports.

West Point, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—An earthquake shock was felt this afternoon at 4:10 o'clock. The tremor was very distinct and lasted for several seconds.

Newnan Gets Shake-Up.

Newnan, Ga., October 18.—(Special.) A slight earthquake shock was felt this afternoon. The shock lasted about six seconds. Houses and windows were shaken, though not violently.

Earth Shocks in Macon.

Macon, Ga., October 18.—Two earth shocks were felt here shortly after 4 p. m. today. The tremors were three minutes apart.

Tremor at Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., October 18.—Residents on The Hill, the Augusta suburb, felt a slight earthquake tremor at 5 p. m. today.

Excitement in Birmingham.

Birmingham, Ala., October 18.—Birmingham had the severest earthquake in her history this afternoon at two minutes past 4 o'clock. There were three sharp and distinct shocks separated by brief intervals. Little property damage was caused other than broken windows and toppled chimneys, but the quakes caused great excitement.

Thousands of people poured from office buildings and downtown structures. A matinee audience at a theater rushed for the exits. A lady at a card party on South Highlands fainted. Plate glass windows were broken on South Twentieth street. All the county courts adjourned in alarm.

The main central telephone exchange set a new record by handling 25,000 calls between 4 and 5 p. m.

Many wild rumors regarding explosions of mines and plants were circulated following the quake.

TEUTONIC ARMIES ARE DRIVEN BACK

Transylvanian side of the border, says an official announcement issued late this evening.

Violent Teutonic attacks are in progress along the entire front in the Carpathians, but the entente lines have not been penetrated, the announcement adds.

All the military news from the Rumanian front is declared to be reassuring.

The announcement, which was supplementary to the regular communication of the day, reads as follows:

"In the Predeal region the Rumanians are resuming the offensive and are pursuing the enemy on the Transylvania slope. Very stubborn fighting is in progress.

"On the whole Carpathian front the enemy is attacking violently, but so far without success.

"All the military news is reassuring."

ONLY MINOR ACTIONS, BULGARIA REPORTS.

Sofia, October 17.—(Via London, October 18.)—Only minor actions on all fronts are reported in the official statement issued by the Bulgarian war office today. The text of the statement follows:

"The situation on the Macedonian front is unchanged. East of Presba lake and in the Cerna bend there was vigorous artillery activity. We repulsed weak enemy attacks near the villages of Gradeshnitsa and Tarnova. In the Moglenica sector there was quiet. At some points on the Vardar there was weak artillery firing. During patrol skirmishes east of the Vardar we captured two English soldiers. At the foot of the Belaschitza mountains there was weak artillery firing. On the Struma front there were patrol skirmishes. The Aegean coast is quiet.

"The situation on the Rumanian front is unchanged. Along the Danube there is quiet. In the Dobrudja there was weak artillery firing at some points. We dispersed an enemy detachment composed of two batteries and three battalions between Kujus Manut and Enigea. In his flight the enemy left behind him his guns and ammunition cases. There is quiet on the Black sea coast.

ITALIANS BREAK THRO' LAST LINE OF THE AUSTRIANS

Rome, October 18 (via London).—Italian troops on Mount Pasubio, in the Trentino, yesterday broke the last Austro-Hungarian lines of resistance in the region between Cosmagnon and Roite, says the Italian official statement issued today, and stormed the Austrian lines north of the summit of Pasubio.

The text of the statement reads:

"On Mount Pasubio after breaking the last resistance in the region between Cosmagnon and Roite our troops yesterday stormed the enemy lines north of the summit.

"Following an effective artillery preparation the strong redoubt which the Austrians had built on a commanding position called the 'Tooth of Pasubio' was carried by assault. Seventy-two prisoners and a quantity of arms and ammunition were taken.

"Two strong enemy columns which moved to the counter attack were allowed to advance within a few hundred yards of our lines, when they suddenly found themselves under the concentrated fire of our batteries and were almost destroyed. During the night the enemy attempted further attacks, all of which were driven off with heavy losses.

"Along the remainder of the front only artillery actions took place, enemy batteries firing a few shells on Asiago (Trentino) and Gorizia."

BRITONS ADVANCE ON FRENCH FRONT; PRISONERS TAKEN

London, October 18.—"Rain fell heavily during the night," says today's official report from the front in France. "Notwithstanding this we made progress at various points between the Albert-Bapaume road and Lesbouefs. We have taken some prisoners."

FRENCH REPULSED NORTH OF SOMME.

Berlin, October 18.—French attacks in the region of Morval and Rancourt, north of the River Somme, were repulsed yesterday after hard fighting, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters staff. British and French attacks near Thiepval, Courcelette and Bouchavesnes, the statement adds, also failed.

On both sides of Eaucourt L'Abbaye, it is officially announced the German destructive fire reduced the British attack to failure at the outset. North of the Somme the artillery bombardment was intense.

The statement says the French have forced their way into Sailly-Saillisel where fighting is still in progress. The announcement follows:

"Army Group of Prince Rupprecht: The artillery fighting attained considerable intensity over wide sectors, especially north of the Somme. During the evening the British attacked between Le Sars and Gueudecourt and the French from Lesboeufs as far as Rancourt. On both sides of Eaucourt L'Abbaye our destructive fire, brought to bear upon the enemy storming trenches, reduced the attack at the outset to failure. Near Gueudecourt stubborn hand-to-hand fighting developed, during which our positions were held in their entirety.

"French troops which advanced to the attack from the region of Morval and Rancourt were repulsed after a hard fight. The enemy has forced his way into Sailly-Saillisel and fighting there is still going on.

"Adjacent to the principal place of attack near Thiepval, Courcellette and Bouchavesnes, attacks made by the enemy failed to gain any success for him.

"Five enemy aeroplanes were brought down in aerial fighting.

"Army Group of the German Crown Prince: On the eastern bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) there was lively artillery firing."

GERMANS FAIL, WITH BIG LOSS.

Paris, October 18.—Three times last night the Germans delivered attacks on the French positions in Sailly-Saillisel on the Somme front. The war office announces that the French maintained all their positions and inflicted heavy losses on the Germans.

Near Berny-en-Santerre the Germans gained a footing in a French first line trench, but they were driven out.

The statement follows:

"North of the Somme toward the close of the day yesterday the enemy renewed his attempts on the Sailly-Saillisel position. Three attacks by the enemy debouching from the north and east were successfully broken by our fire, which caused him considerable loss. Our gains were maintained in their entirety. During the course of the night there was no infantry action.

"South of the Somme the Germans about 5 o'clock this morning attacked one of our trenches east of Berny-En-Santerre. Some enemy fractions of the first wave succeeded in penetrating our advanced elements. Immediately counter-attacked by our troops, the occupants were killed or captured. The following waves were caught under our fire and were compelled to flow back in disorder, leaving a number of dead on the ground.

"South of the Avre our reconnaissance penetrated enemy trenches in the Fresnieres district and brought back prisoners.

"Southeast of Rheims another coup de main, carried out in the Fort de la Pompelle sector, was perfectly successful."

BAVARIANS STORM RUSSIAN POSITION ON GALICIAN FRONT

Berlin, October 18.—(Via London.)—On the western bank of the Narayuvka river southwest of Herbutov, in Galicia, Bavarian troops yesterday stormed a Russian point of support, says today's German official statement, and took 350 prisoners and 12 machine guns.

The announcement follows:

"Army Group of Prince Leopold of Bavaria: After the failure, with heavy losses of strong infantry attacks against our front west of Lutsk (in Volhynia) the enemy limited his efforts there to spirited artillery fire. Infantry which attacked an Austro-Hungarian position near Zwyzyn, northwest of Zalocze, was driven back to its trenches with heavy losses by our fire.

"On the western bank of the Narayuvka, southwest of Herbutov, Bavarian troops, after effective artillery preparation, stormed a Russian point of support and brought back two officers, 350 men and 12 machine guns.

"Army Group of Archduke Charles Francis: On the River Bystritsa Solotvina an attack made against our advanced position failed.

"In the Carpathians Ludova height has been under a strong bombardment. Attacks in the Kirktcha sector were repulsed."

RUSSIANS REPULSE COUNTER ATTACKS.

Petrograd, October 18.—(Via London.) Heavy engagements are continuing on the Galician battle front, according to today's war office report, which announces stubborn fighting still in progress and the repulse of Teutonic counter attacks, notably in the vicinity of Korytniza and Bolshovtse.

RUSSIANS ANNOUNCE REPULSE OF TURKS.

Petrograd, October 18.—(Via London.) Russian troops in Turkish Armenia have driven off strong forces of Turks and Kurds, according to today's war office statement, which says:

"Caucasus Front: During October 15 and 16 considerable forces of Turks and Kurds attacked seven times at Sundidag mountain, 60 versts (about 40 miles) southeast of Erzingen, occupied by our gallant Caucasian regiments, were repulsed by our fire with heavy losses."

SERBS SUCCESSFUL AGAINT BULGARIANS.

Saloniki, October 18.—(Via London.) Successful operations by the Serbians east of Monastir are reported in a Serbian official announcement today as follows:

"On October 16 our troops attacked Bulgarian positions at Dobropolye and Sokol (on the Nidje planina). The operations were continued on the 17th with regularity and success. On the rest of the front there was the usual fighting activity."

FRONT EXTENDED, BRITISH ANNOUNCE.

London, October 18.—The official bulletin from British headquarters in France, issued tonight, reads:

"An attack this morning extended our front north of Gueudecourt and toward Butte de Warlencourt. So far over 150 prisoners have been reported.

"Yesterday, besides many reconnaissances, our aircraft carried out three bombing raids against enemy communications, in which railway stock and station buildings were damaged. A train was hit and derailed.

"There were many fights in the air, in the course of which four enemy machines were driven down damaged; one fell into a lake. Four of our machines have not returned."

TEUTONS REPULSED, RUMANIA CLAIMS.

Bucharest, via London, October 18.—The war office communication issued today says:

"On the northern and northwestern fronts there have been artillery actions to the west of Tulghes and Bucaz. The enemy attacks were repulsed. We took 90 prisoners. On Bolovis we also took two officers and 65 men prisoner. In the Trous valley fighting continues. Up to the present we have taken one officer and 100 men prisoner. In the Uzul valley all enemy attacks have been sanguinarily driven back beyond the frontier.

"In the Oituz valley both attacks and counter attacks continue with the same violence. We have inflicted heavy losses on the enemy, capturing three officers and a hundred men. In the region of Verancy minor engagements took place to the west of the frontier. The enemy has been repulsed in the Buzeu (Buxen) valley. Our artillery dismantled an enemy gun and forced the advanced enemy lines to be withdrawn one kilometer.

"To the north of Table Butzi, there have been artillery duels.

"Calm prevails at Brateces and Predelus. At Predeal there has been an intense artillery duel and violent engagements occurred at Macelas. We took here four machine guns and made some prisoners.

"In the Ark valley we repulsed an enemy attack on Mont Robul and made several prisoners. We also captured two machine guns.

"On the Jiul front calm has reigned. The enemy's artillery has violently bombarded Torso front."

JUROR WAS ELIGIBLE, SAYS SUPREME COURT

The supreme court, in the case of Esa against the state, certified to it from the court of appeals, decided yesterday that a juror who had been peremptorily challenged by a defendant at one trial was not on that account ineligible to serve as a juror in the case at a subsequent trial. He must have been stricken for cause to disqualify him from serving at subsequent trials of the same case.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION AROUSES ENTHUSIASM

President's Day Is Observed by Women of Georgia With an Interesting Program.

Waynesboro, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—Today was County Presidents' Day at the state convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union. The morning program consisted of memorial services for "promoted comrades," the report of the executive committee and reports of the officers, after consecration services by Mrs. H. B. Childs, of Toccoa, and prayer by Mrs. C. H. Smith, of Ellaville, and a song by Mrs. Cunyus. The union made Mrs. August Burghard, of Macon, its state reporter or publicity agent and provided for pledges by the local unions to finance her work. Noontide prayer marked the noon hour.

The delegates were given a splendid buffet luncheon by the Waynesboro ladies in the handsome modern $50,000 public school building.

The features of the afternoon session were the parliamentary drill by Mrs. E. L. Longan, of Kansas City, Mo., and the grand review of white ribbon recruits and the enlistment of new recruits by Mrs. L. N. Omar, state superintendent of cradle roll department.

Many mothers brought their babies and had the white ribbon pinned on the little ones and pledged them to the cause of purity and temperance. The loyal temperance legions of Waynesboro and Augusta, 75 boys and girls, also gave a beautiful program tonight.

State School Superintendent Brittain will speak on "Birds in Their Relations to the Boll Weevil and Other Insects."

LET BOYS OF FIFTH VISIT THEIR HOMES, SUGGESTS MAYOR

Mayor Woodward suggests that inasmuch as the members of the Fifth regiment will only be in the city for one hour it might be better to allow them to visit their relatives and families rather than require them to spend that time in a parade.

"If the boys were to be here for two or three hours I see no good reason why they should not parade," states the mayor. "Now, inasmuch as they will be in the city only one short hour and their relatives and families will be anxious to see them before they leave for the border, I suggest that the proposed parade be called off and they be allowed the hour to spend the time with their relatives."

"PURITY" COMING.

Booked for Entire Week at Georgian Theater.

"Purity," the photoplay classic, at which New York was at first undecided whether to blush or applaud, but which it later declared the strongest morality film of the season, is scheduled to appear in Atlanta on Monday, October 23, at the Georgian theater for an entire week's showing.

Never has feminine charm, photographic labratory, California scenic grandeur, the pen of master minds and the brush of directorial genius combined to produce a pictorial gem of rarer beauty than "Purity." It is a superb blending of the allegorical and modern. A classic rich in poetic lore, abounding in literary wealth and portrayed by a massive cast of eminent artists under the skilful supervision of skilful craftsmen.

The genius and feminine charms of Audrey Munson, the star of "Purity," are but component parts of a masterpiece woven of a wealth of detail. Miss Munson is the sculptural celebrity of America's world of art, the model for many immortal designs created by both chisel and brush for the San Francisco exposition.

In the allegory which precedes the narrative, "Purity," Audrey Munson, personifies "Purity" in the form of virtue, sweetness and innocence moving through the world untainted by the touch of evil, communing with beings as spiritual, as earthly, and as sinfirtless as the lily veil that lightly clings to her body.

The story abounds in poetic charm and in literary skill and will attract lovers of all branches of art.

Votes Water Bonds.

Madison, Ga., October 18.—(Special.) The bond election for $25,000 for the city of Madison held here today for the improvement of the waterworks and sewerage was carried by a vote of 182 out of a registration of 265.

FORESIGHT IN REAL ESTATE.

In the series of interviews with leading real estate and business men in The Constitution today there is disclosed opportunity for the prospective investor such as comes seldom within a lifetime.

The statements here made follow upon and commend a recent editorial suggestion of The Constitution in which attention was called to the fact that never before has this city offered such real estate opportunities as are available today.

Atlanta real estate invites and commands the man with an investor's foresight. Wide-awake, he cannot escape it. Keen to opportunity, he must take advantage of it.

The Constitution discussed the subject and offered the suggestion a few days ago upon the basis of 17-cent cotton. We have now reached 18-cent cotton, and we are still going.

Georgia farmers who have made good crops will be comparatively wealthy in a single season. Merchants throughout the country have done big business and made splendid profits. With it all they are only at the beginning of it. Banks throughout Georgia and the southeast are full to overflowing with deposits looking for investment.

This money cannot and will not lie idle. It is going to be put to work, and that, too, very quickly.

The most attractive investment of all, the investment which offers the greatest possibilities, is that in well-located real estate, and there is none which offers the opportunity in fuller measure than that right here in Atlanta, which, central, semi-central, or for residence purposes, can be had today at figures which will make the timid and fearful stand amazed a year from now with the thought, "Why didn't I think about it then?"

There isn't a doubt about the fact that Atlanta real estate is coming back, and coming quickly. It will be here before we know it. And when it does come it will come in a way that will amaze even the old-timers who were accustomed to the top-notch, front-foot price.

Buy it now and watch it grow; for it will grow, once it begins, more rapidly than we may think or dream.

LESSON OF THE FAIR.

In planning for the first Southeastern fair at Lakewood, we cut a pattern we thought would answer for at least five years or more.

The Southeastern fair had not been open for two days before we found we were short on cloth and the pattern wouldn't fit.

In the wildest dreams of the association's executive committee, it was thought if the fair should prove equal to taking care of 25,000 people in a single day it would measure up to more than Atlanta's expectations.

And yet upon a single day, Tuesday, over 58,000 people passed through the gates of the fair.

We failed, perhaps, to take into account the fact that the south has already entered upon the greatest and most amazing era of prosperity in all its history. People are ready for fairs and particularly for a display like that the Southeastern fair offers them.

Thus there is one and only one complaint that can be brought against the fair management, and that is the lack of facilities for proper handling of the crowds.

And even while the complaint is voiced, it is not a failure or shortcoming which can be laid to the association. It is, in fact, nobody's fault. It is simply a case of eyes not being big enough to see all there was ahead.

The officers of the Southeastern Fair association which has had in charge the active management of the fair have done their full duty; no set of men anywhere, with the same lights before them, could have improved upon the results.

What we have to do, now that the enterprise has been more than vindicated, is to proceed to get ready for next year. We've got to cut another pattern and get a bigger bolt of cloth, and it will be well for us to be about it right now.

A SPLENDID BEGINNING.

In its proposed program of trunk-line roads to be developed throughout Georgia under the federal aid act, the new Georgia state highway commission has made a splendid beginning.

It is well understood, of course, that this program is subject to the approval of the federal highway department. It is further understood that it is not a matter of a moment. It cannot be carried out in one year or two; it is a work that is set down to be accomplished determinedly, systematically, and as soon as it can be done.

The main thing about it and the important thing for all Georgians, is that the commission has prepared its plans promptly and in businesslike manner, is ready to make full showing of its purposes to the federal government and to proceed, upon its approval, to the accomplishment of the task.

If the commission proceeds promptly to the execution of the program it has laid down, there can be no reasonable word of complaint from any section or community.

The one all important question that remains open is as to the allowance to be made by the federal government for the work of Georgia's convicts. The proposal or suggestion to allow Georgia simply the cost of maintenance, or the actual expense attached to keeping up the convict camps, will not do.

We should have a definite, positive ruling on this subject, and have it without further delay, to the effect that Georgia is to be allowed the full value of her convict labor put upon roads, on identically the same basis as if it were free labor.

Take the case of a county working, say fifty convicts. Without an anti-lease law that county could lease the labor of those convicts for so much cash and put the actual money into free labor, matching it dollar for dollar with the federal fund. The labor of these convicts is worth just as much as the money; in fact, a little bit more. It is a well-known fact that upon contract road work, convict labor, with its regularity, is worth more than free labor. It has been, and it will continue to be, so upon the roads.

In other words, in accepting Georgia's convict labor in matching dollars with this state in road building, the federal government will get more and better results than it can possibly expect or hope for from free labor in other states.

If Georgia's senators and representatives indifferently permit to stand the proposal that Georgia shall receive credit only for the maintenance expense of the convict forces, then our opinion of the state delegation and its services must be materially modified. Anything less than a full allowance for the value of this labor upon the same basis with free labor will be an outrageous injustice upon the state.

Fortunately, final decision has not yet been made in this matter by Director L. W. Page, of the Good Roads bureau, nor by the secretary of agriculture, in whom full power is reposed. While the matter is pending it is clearly the duty of the Georgia delegation to get busy with it, and have the case properly construed before it is too late.

Unless this is done Georgia stands to lose heavily in the arrangement.

His Titles.

I.

He was thinkin' he'd read his titles clear
To the mansions waitin' him "Over There,"
With golden crowns and
harps to spare,
An' more white robes than a saint could wear!

But he had forgot that to have 'em so
He'd have to start in this world below,
An' if here one flaw in his titles showed He'd sure lose out on the high home-road!

II.

He had forgot, as his part he played,
That the good Lord loves the world He made;
That day an' night it's in His sight
An' them that's in it must treat it right!
Must lead the light to the darkened places;
Make Mornin' bright in the shadowed faces;
Till souls for your higher titles pray
An' Heaven comes down for to spend the day!

III.

But it's sometimes the way with great an' small,
An' that's why we pray: "Lord, help us all!"
Instead o' the titles high an' grand
An' a mortgage big on the Glory Land,
When the life-sun's slopin' down the west
We'll look for a humble place to rest,
An' be glad if it's given: But still, to win it,
Life must have something of Heaven in it.

To Greece.

I.

The spirits of thy mighty dead,
Where are they now? Ah, have they fled
Forever from thy sacred shore?
"'Tis Greece, but living Greece no more?"

II.

"Cans't thou be now a land of slaves?"
Cry voices out of million graves
Of heroes who thy battles won
In glorious ages past and gone;

III.

"No, no," they cry, "it cannot be!
Hast thou forgot Thermopyle?
Leonidas, thy noblest son?
Bozzaris? Matchless Marathon?"

In hand thy laureled standards take;
Thy ancient glory has not fled,
Rise! Show the world thou art not dead!

Passing of "Moonshine Mose."

(In "The Kentucky Way.")

The Cleveland Plain Dealer tells it in this fashion:

"There are more moonshine whisky stills in the moving picture plays than anywhere else. They don't distill much illicit stuff nowadays. They are going to distill a good deal less now that Moonshine Mose has been killed by a United States marshal. It is scarcely necessary to add that he died in the prescribed Kentucky way—with his boots on."

But now we're a-hittin' the bully bass drum

An' don't lose the bass drum
You beat in the band!"

O, we're marchin' along to a jubilee song
An' givin' the country our hand;
The trumpets are blowin', the bass drum's a-goin'
In this here Prosperity band.

But we're heedin' old Wisdom—
To watch whar we stand
An' not lose the bass drum
From out o' the band!

British Capital to Develop Mexican Mine.

(From the Bulletin of the Pan-American Union, Washington, D. C.)

That Great Britain is being kept busy attending to its share in the European war goes without saying; that the industrial interests of the country are being neglected, however, is a conclusion very far from the truth. Its capitalists are not overlooking any opportunities, especially opportunities to secure control of raw materials needed in their industries. They realize that it is just about as important to secure raw materials for their manufactures as it is to secure markets for the finished products. Acting on this principle they are preparing for the great commercial and industrial war that is destined to follow the present terrible conflict by getting control of large supplies of raw material wherever they may be found, regarless of distance or immediate accessibility. As an evidence of this the following item from the September number of the Bulletin of the Pan-American Union is of interest:

"El Dia, a daily newspaper of Monterey, State of Nuevo Leon, is authority for the statement that a company of English capitalists with available funds of several hundred thousand pounds sterling has been organized in London to work the Mercado Hill Iron mines near Durango. This iron hill is one of the richest and most extensive deposits of iron ore in the world, and has heretofore been largely used for fluxing purposes in the principal smelters of the republic. The company is reported to be negotiating with the Mexican government concerning the granted of the necessary concession; plans have been made for excavation work; smelters are to be erected, and the necessary machinery is to be installed as soon as practicable. The company has placed a practical mining engineer and metallurgist in charge of the work, and a number of laborers have already been engaged to carry on active operations in the development of the mine."

REALTY MEN PRAISE CONSTITUTION'S CAMPAIGN

SURE TO GO UP, SAY DEALERS HERE

Recent activities in Atlanta's real estate market teach but one moral—that is, "Buy now."

Sales and exchanges of properties announced lately are beginning to indicate that there is a rich harvest ahead for those persons who have had foresight enough to maintain their faith in Atlanta "dirt" during the past two lean years in the industrial and commercial activities of the south, which now have swung into a prosperous stride.

Prices have been good, and have shown increases in many instances already.

But there are still bargains on the local market, and the man who wishes to buy, can buy advantageously.

There are a number of sales being made at prices below real value. The First Presbyterian church property on Marietta street was sold last Saturday for $102,500 when, three years ago, $140,000 was offered for the property. But this was a bargain price, and not the real value of this property. The First Presbyterian church sold because it needed the money to complete its new church building on Peachtree road and Sixteenth street. And there are dozens of other bargains of a similar nature in the Atlanta real estate field.

The Constitution's campaign which was launched with the editorial "Real Estate Foresight," has created a wholesome reaction in realty conditions. Real estate men feel that The Constitution has summed the situation up in its right light.

Every realty agent in Atlanta praises The Constitution for its campaign to get small and large investors to "buy Atlanta property" now. The old slogan of "Buy Real Estate Now" never promised such lucrative returns as at the present time. However, the period when the investor can advantageously buy property is fast slipping away. If action is not taken immediately prices will have advanced to record altitude before long. The overflow of prosperity in general trade channels; 18-cent cotton and prospects of still higher cotton; peace talk, and other elements that weigh heavily upon trade conditions are bound in time to effect realty prices. Their influence has already begun in the Atlanta market.

Local Dealers Optimistic.

Such prominent real estate men as Benjamin D. Watkins, Robert R. Otis, president of the Atlanta Real Estate board; E. Rivers, A. J. West, George P. Moore, T. C. Holmes, J. R. Smith, Forrest and George Adair, Joel T. Daves and J. R. Nutting speak most optimistically of the outlook.

Here is what they have to say about The Constitution's campaign as well as a few remarks concerning market conditions and improvement:

Benjamin D. Watkins says:

"The Constitution's real estate campaign is along the right line. Business has been quiet for about three years, but it is now gradually getting back to where it used to be. Stocks at times appear inviting, the winners are always in a small minority. A little square of mother earth is the safest form of investment to be had. Proof of this fact is that practically every wealthy family in Atlanta owns real estate."

Robert R. Otis says:

"The Constitution's campaign is one of the best things for real estate in some time. The market is improving, and improving fast. There are going to be some big deals brought to light soon. Eighteen-cent cotton and general improvement in all lines of mercantile and manufacturing businesses are bound to produce a wholesome effect on realty. The man who buys now—shows foresight to put away a little money while property is cheap—is the wise man. He will reap tremendous profits soon."

Rivers Reports Big Increase.

E. Rivers says:

"Our business has been 100 per cent better in the last year. We recommend buying on a conservative basis, but not on speculative basis. Some real bargains are being offered now, and if people will only buy while the market is low, they are sure to make good profits."

A. J. West says:

"I have been in the real estate business thirty years, and have been through three panics. These periods usually last about three years. We are emerging from one now, and realty is going to get better."

Good Time to Invest.

J. R. Smith, of Smith & Ewing, says:

"We heartily commend your real estate campaign. Atlanta has grown very rapidly and will continue to grow. There are new smokestacks going up every day and new enterprises being opened; and while we have had periods of depression they have always been general, but you will find that those who have invested in real estate in Atlanta, judiciously have realized a good dividend on their investment. This same condition will prevail in the future; values will continue to increase with the growth of the city. We agree with you that this is a good time to invest in Atlanta real estate, as market conditions are entirely favorable for purchases at this time. Those who have money to invest and are forwardlooking are buying real estate at the present market."

George P. Moore says:

"The Constitution is working along the right lines.

"More real bargains are offered now than ever before—bargains that pay good interest on money. A great many people put money in the banks and get 4 per cent when they could invest the same amount of money in good real estate and make three or four times the amount of interest.

"With new factories opening up and old ones running full capacity there will be a good demand for homes. I don't see how anyone could make a mistake by making a good real estate investment."

The Key to Prosperity.

T. C. Holmes says:

"The Constitution has inaugurated a real estate campaign worth while.

"The man who does not take advantage of the wonderful opportunities that are knocking at his door will not have to live long to see what a blunder he has made.

"If we will go into the office buildings and look over the city or walk its streets we cannot help seeing the wonderful opportunities that are here.

"Go out to Lakewood and look at the exhibits being made by the live stock men of the southeast. You will believe in this section as you never have before.

"The man who has 'real estate foresight' has the 'key' to future prosperity and happiness."

Joel T. Davis says:

"I wish to express my appreciation of the real estate campaign The Constitution is conducting. The sanity and force of your argument is commendable.

"There come seasons in the development of every city when many stand in need of assets on which they can realize immediate funds. Such times are properly called 'panics,' since there arises unreasoning antagonism to every form of permanent investment.

"We have passed through such an unpleasant (and in large measure unnecessary) experience. It is high time for our people to realize that the safest and, in final analysis, the most lucrative purchase is the judicious buying of real estate.

"The strong editorial, 'Real Estate Foresight,' will help toward this matter. As it says, there was never in Atlanta's history a more promising opportunity for the wise and foreseeing investor in realty."

J. R. Nutting says:

"Allow me to thank The Constitution for its 'Buy Real Estate Now' campaign.

"You hit the nail squarely on the head in saying that now is the accepted time to buy Atlanta real estate. The market has reached its lowest point and the tendency is now in the direction of improvement and all indications point to a very active market in the near future and purchasers who make selections of available parcels at the present time with any degree of caution and prudence are certain to reap a rich reward.

"Real estate is always the last thing to respond when the country is recovering from a period of depression, but when the upward turn does come there is always steady enhancement.

"Many Atlanta fortunes, indeed I might say most Atlanta fortunes, are based on real estate, and fortunes will still be made in Atlanta dirt in the future as in the past by careful investors."

E. A. Hartsock says:

"I desire to express my sincere appreciation for the campaign The Constitution has started.

"I feel that you have most logically expressed the facts and that the time has really come for the wise to place their savings in property. We all know that real estate is first to feel and last to recuperate in panicky times, but with every other line now booming, money plentiful and cotton at paying price, we must expect the ripening of real estate's time. I feel like the thanks of the people and their commendation is due you for timely attention to this as well as the many things your keen foresight and able presentation gives us from time to time."

Says the Silo Is Best Remedy for Boll Weevil

Editor Constitution: It has now become a settled fact that boll weevils will be practically in every cotton field in Georgia destroying this most valuable crop in less than two years. If all the farmers in Georgia were intelligent, farm-owning white people it would be an easy task to prepare a campaign of defense against this most destructive enemy, but with so many negro tenants engaged in raising cotton almost exclusively, it is a most difficult matter to get organized intelligently for defense and destruction of these pests. For over fifty years negro tenants have had the best opportunity to have become land-owners of any farmers in any section of all the world, but they just will not become so interested, and white people who own land have, and will continue to rent to, any kind of tenant regardless of consequences, until the boll weevil destroys the possibility of cotton being grown on a southern farm in a haphazard way. A great deal has been spoken and written about grass and stock raising in Georgia. But to raise stock and cattle of any kind requires low-priced feed produced on the farm.

In Wisconsin immense silos are filled with most valuable stock feed at a cost of not over $2 per ton! In Georgia stock raisers and dairymen are expected to pay $15 a ton for cotton seed hulls! Thousands and thousands of tons of grass are now growing on farms in Georgia and will never be cut. The deadest grass in Georgia on any farm is worth as much as a feed-filler as cotton seed hulls—$15 per ton—75 cents per hundred pounds and every pound saved would represent cash made. With the above statement the reader will naturally wonder why there is not a system of crops grown in Georgia and placed in silos on every farm in this great state—the reason is cotton and tenants, and, of course, will never change as long as these conditions exist.

How many silos have been installed in Georgia this year of grace, 1916, as a result of work and effort of any agricultural school or institution in the state? It was learned from the recent trouble in New York city, as published, the farmers there had been receiving from dealers for their milk 12 cents per gallon. The farmers and dairymen around Atlanta who do not know how to produce feed for their cows want 48 cents per gallon for their milk at retail, and about 30 cents wholesale! If the dairymen from New York to Wisconsin could get 20 to 25 cents per gallon for milk they would soon own the earth and the fullness thereof. There is no chance to successfully and profitably maintain a farm in the south were it not for the slave labor under the guise of the tenant system that should be speedily banished from our section—the fairest and best in all the world—and forever!

The fact that Georgia buys from other sections hay, corn, oats, wheat, syrup, meat, chickens, milk and butter and fruits at outrageously high prices, is unbelievable.

At the Omaha exposition some years ago in competition with wheat from all around the world, the specimen that won the grand prize was grown near Dalton, Ga., and at the same time and place the cheese that won the highest honors was made at our Griffin experiment station, that has long since ceased to experiment or be of benefit to our farmers, and the truth is, take all our Georgia farmers, including tenants, not five in one hundred know we have any such institutions.

There are enough apple trees in Georgia today to supply all the apples the state needs, but unfortunately the majority of those owning the trees do not know they have to be specially cared for and fertilized and above all sprayed and treated with utmost care all through the year. These public institutions we have should work on the silo planting idea, at least one silo on every farm, and see that every farmer with an orchard knows how to care for the same intelligently, for the enemies of fruit tree life and production are more destructive than the boll weevil is to cotton. It is of no profit to Georgia to know that at the recent great apple exhibition of the best specimens from all over America those from Georgia won out over all competitors. We just know that most of the apples we buy at a high price are shipped from hundreds of miles into the state paying also the freight charges.

After all that can be said no doubt our greatest trouble is traceable to ignorance and laziness, or want of proper and intelligent application of our energies. But let the state get busy building silos and they will be filled and get the literature on care of fruit trees and a spraying machine on every farm and we will have an abundance of apples, peaches and grapes of a quality that will sell for a good price in any market.

Sardinia Gives Names, But No Fish.

(From the National Geographic Magazine.)

We get the word "Sardine" from Sardinia, but we get few sardines, for practically all of this "catch" is consumed locally. The tunny fisheries of the island, on the other hand, are important and profitable. The Genoese control the latter industry, for the Sardinians are not a maritime folk.

COMMISSION ABANDONS HEARING IN SAVANNAH

Rail Board Will Hear Argument Here in the Light Rate War.

So voluminous and comprehensive has been the data bearing upon the Savannah light rate war between the Savannah Lighting company and the Stone & Webster interests represented in the Savannah Electric company that the Georgia railroad commission announced yesterday that its visit to Savannah, originally set for October 31, has been indefinitely postponed.

On top of this the commission announced that a date in the near future will be set when the commission will hear argument from both sides of the controversy on the legal point of whether or not the law vests in it the power and authority to fix minimum rates chargeable by public utilities.

That the commission can establish maximum rates—that is, fix a limit beyond which corporations must not charge—is recognized, but the board is not clear on whether it can legally fix how little might be charged by public service corporations for their services or commodities. Such a ruling, or rate-fixing, is called for in the Savannah difficulty.

The original plan of the commission was to hold a series of hearings in Savannah, beginning October 31, in order to get at just the conditions there and get fully into the merits of the respective corporations' contentions. However, the information and data sent to the commission has been so complete, it was determined Wednesday, as to enable the commission to render its decision without the proposed Savannah hearing.

SHORTHORN SALE TODAY

Auction Will Be Live Stock Feature of the Day.

At the exposition grounds today the livestock feature will be a sale of prize-winning Shorthorns, beginning at 10 o'clock this morning, to be cried by Colonel C. M. Jones, Chicago, the veteran Shorthorn fancier and live-stock auctioneer.

In all forty head of these animals will be auctioned at this sale, among them being some of the finest cattle on the grounds. One of these is to be the bull calf which took first money in the judging, a full brother of the bull a year older which was sold last week in Tennessee for $1,250. He is owned by McMillan & McMillan, of Lodi, Wis. No better bred animal is to be found in any sales ring in America.

The sale has attracted Shorthorn breeders and farmers desiring to improve their herds, from all sections of the south, and it bids fair to score an event in the livestock history of this section, where Shorthorns are only beginning to be appreciated for their true merit.

In the Shorthorn judging Wednesday first prize for a herd was won by that of the Lespedeza Farm, Hickory Valley, Tenn., and in this connection partisans of the breed emphasized the fact that these prize-winners were bred and reared under almost parallel conditions as those prevailing throughout most of Georgia. Thus, they argue, the Shorthorn is the ideal breed for all-purpose stock for this state.

Wednesday a herd of forty Jerseys, of various ages and of both sexes, was sold at auction on the fair grounds, bringing all the way from $60 up to $250. In the Jersey division there are 200 animals on the grounds, and, as is the case with the other strains of cattle, all are of the best in the country, and most of them are fresh from conquests at the Royal shows at Kansas City.

Four herds of Herefords will be sold on the grounds Friday.

WASHINGTON CHIEF HERE

Raymond W. Pullman Pays Visit to Federal Prison.

Raymond W. Pullman, superintendent of police of the District of Columbia, and Bolithar J. Laws, assistant United States district attorney for the federal district, stopped over in Atlanta yesterday for a couple of days' visit on their return home from Jacksonville, Fla., where they had been to witness the shooting matches of the United States regulars and national guard now in progress on a range near that city. They were registered at the Georgian Terrace hotel.

Major Pullman, for the official title of the head of police in Washington, is major rather than chief, declared last night that there was nothing of an official nature connected with their trip here. It was his second trip to Atlanta and both times he had been so unfortunate as to catch the city in the throes of a violent rain storm. While in the city they paid a visit to the federal prison and were shown through the building and grounds by Warden Zerbst.

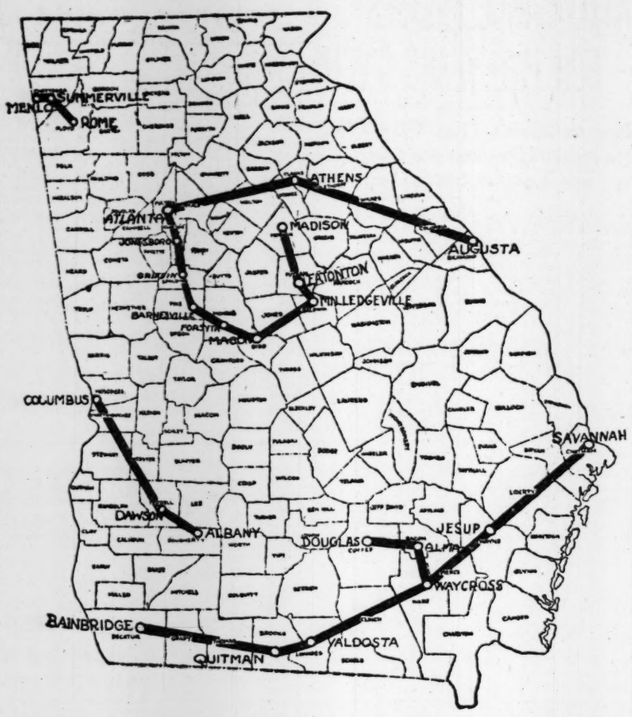
Co-operation of Counties Needed in Highway Work



The accompanying map of Georgia shows the routes of the eight highways tentatively outlined by the Georgia highway commission, plans for which highways will be submitted to the federal government for aid in construction. Beginning at the northern end of the state these eight routes are as follows: Rome via Summerville to Menlo; Atlanta via Athens to Augusta; Atlanta via Griffin, Barnesville and Forsyth to Macon; Macon via Milledgeville and Eatonton to Madison; Bainbridge via Quitman and Valdosta to Waycross; Douglas via Alma to Waycross; Waycross via Jesup to Savannah.

The newly created state highway commission, at its meeting last Tuesday, laid the foundation for its mission of working out and effecting the construction of a system of state highways.

The plan of the commission as tentatively agreed upon at the meeting, and which will likely become the permanent plan of the commission, consists of a road building program, covering some 5,500 miles of roads in Georgia and requiring more than five years to complete, according to the present estimate. This state-wide system of highways is set forth in a map prepared by Professor Strahan, of the University of Georgia, member of the commission, and contemplates a system which would connect every county site in the state with first-class highways. So pretentious a scheme as this will, of course, require years to complete and will require much money, and, under the present system of road building in Georgia, will require an absolutely complete co-operation between every county in the state and the highway commission, if federal aid is to be used in constructing links of highway through every county.

Eight Principal Highways.

Working out such a program must necessarily be done piecemeal. To this end the commission has decided upon eight principal highways for the present for which federal aid will be asked. These highways are as follows:

From Rome to Menlo.

From Atlanta, via Barnesville, Griffin and Forsyth, to Macon.

From Macon, via Milledgeville and Eatonton, to Madison.

From Augusta, via Athens, to Atlanta.

From Columbus, via Dawson, to Albany.

From Bainbridge, via Quitman and Valdosta, to Waycross.

From Douglas, via Alma, to Waycross.

From Waycross, via Jesup, to Savannah.

This does not mean that all of these highways are to be built at once, but, in view of the lack of co-operation which has characterized road building in Georgia under the old system of each county building, or, failing to build, its own roads, more or less without regard to the highways of adjoining counties, any plan whereby a measure of co-operation between counties for the construction of a continuous highway of any considerable length may be regarded as a long step in the right direction.

Work May Start Soon.

If the newly created Georgia highway commission is properly constituted to receive for the state of Georgia aid from the federal government in road building—and there appears no reason to believe that such is not the case—it is likely that actual construction upon one or more of these highways will start in the near future.

As soon as the commission has completed its surveys, maps, estimates and other details preliminary to construction, the plans for these proposed highways will be forwarded to the United States secretary of agriculture. It is his office to decide upon which highway or highways shall first be taken up for construction; that is, if the Georgia commission is properly constituted to receive the federal funds. Copies of the Georgia law, creating the Georgia commission, its organization, powers, etc., will also be submitted to the secretary of agriculture, and the request for federal aid for one of the proposed highways will furnish a test case of the compliance of the Georgia commission with the federal statute.

It is regarded as likely that the highway proposed from Augusta to Atlanta will receive first consideration from the secretary of agriculture, for the reason that federal surveys have already been made in the counties of Oconee and Walton on this route.

The proposal under which the federal government will furnish money to Georgia for the construction of roads in this state is that this state shall spend dollar for dollar with the federal government in such road construction, the expenditure on the part of the state to be in actual money, material, labor or in any means which will represent the value of the money expended by the federal government. In this way it will be possible for Georgia to use her convict labor to offset the federal appropriation. It is regarded, as probable, however, that the federal government will value this labor at the actual cost of the support of the convicts rather than at the current wages of day labor. A ruling will be asked on this point.

Rural Free Delivery Routes.

The federal government further stipulates that the highways improved shall be rural free delivery routes outside the corporate limits of towns and cities.

Taken in conjunction with road work already done and highways already built in Georgia the completion of the eight trunk lines outlined by the commission will mean a very substantial advancement in a system of highways for this state.

Over some of these routes a great part of the way is already in improved condition, but in each there are links through counties which have been tardy in road construction, and the construction of such links will make the highways continuous and, therefore, of tremendously greater service. It is stated that practically all of the counties through which the eight proposed highways pass have agreed to co-operate, and no trouble is anticipated in securing the co-operation of other counties now that there is a definite end toward which to work.

In the Atlanta-to-Macon highway, which traverses the Dixie highway from Atlanta to Macon, the road is already in fair condition except through parts of Monroe county, Clayton county recently having improved her link of the road, but this one stretch through Monroe county, principally from Forsyth to the Bibb county line, is the ruination of what would otherwise be a first-class all-the-year road.

Jones county is the truant link of the Macon-to-Madison route. Morgan county and Baldwin county have for a long while had good roads, and Putnam is just completing the improvement of a highway from the Morgan county line to the Baldwin county line.

Perhaps there is not a more striking need of some systematic manner of road building than in the case of the proposed highway from Douglas via Alma to Waycross. This road at present cannot be called a road at all. It is in places hardly more than a trail through the wiregrass and the piney woods. The construction of this highway means the opening up of a rich farming section to the markets of Waycross and Douglas. Tapping the Dixie highway on the northern end, a pike road leads to Macon now, and the proposed improvements radiating from Waycross would lead eastward to Savannah and westward to Bainbridge.

Building Up Weak Links.

It is in building up such weak links as those pointed out that the commission will be of inestimable service to the state.

The highway proposed from Rome to Menlo is the shortest highway proposed by the commission, but is at the same time perhaps the most important piece of road work to be done in Georgia today. This is for the reason that it forms the Georgia end of the Georgia-Alabama highway projected through the Cumberland mountains from Rome, Ga., to Huntsville, Ala. If this project is pushed through it will mean that leading into Georgia will be absolutely the only passable gateway through the Cumberland mountains for tourists coming southward from the north and west, and vice versa. Neither at Middlesboro, Ky., nor through Marion and Franklin counties, Tennessee, is there today a passable all-the-year road. The completion of the Georgia-Alabama highway will actually pay the state of Georgia in cash from tourists in a very short while double and treble the money necessary to construct the Georgia link.

These first tentative routes proposed by the highway commission are, of course, only the beginning. The entire program contemplates work enough for eight or ten years. The federal act, to be sure, as it stands at present will not furnish funds for that length of time. The federal appropriation now covers but five years, during which period Georgia should receive some $2,000,000. But the Georgia act does not contemplate that the usefulness of the Georgia commission shall expire with the expiration of the federal aid. Whether or not arrangements are made for further aid from the federal government at the expiration of five years, the Georgia commission should by that time be firmly established, and Georgia, in order to meet the federal appropriation, will be making rather substantial appropriations for road building. It is characteristic of the Georgia general assembly that it does not cut down appropriations.

NEW LAW FIRM.

Austin, Boykin & Talbert Is Name of Firm.

James W. Austin, John A. Boykin and James W. Talbert, all well-known Atlanta attorneys, have announced the forming of a partnership for the general practice of law under the firm name of Austin, Boykin & Talbert, with offices in the Fourth National Bank building.

Mr. Talbert, who is the recently admitted member of the partnership, has for five years been secretary to Justice Evans, of the supreme court. Previous to this time Mr. Talbert was court reporter for the Albany circuit.

The partnership was formed October 13.

IRVIN BURDETTE QUITS SCENIC FILM COMPANY

Has Purchased Motion Picture Advertising Co. and Will Push It to Front.

Irvin A. Burdette, who has gained a wide business acquaintance in Atlanta and throughout the country as vice president and sales manager of the Scenic Film company, has resigned his connection with that company and in the future will be identified only with the Motion Picture Advertising Company of America, located in Atlanta, which concern he recently purchased.

The Motion Picture company has recently been a subject of controversy among its former stockholders, which was finally terminated by Mr. Burdette purchasing it outright, and he will now devote his entire time and attention to its affairs. His successful experience with the Scenic Film company is a guarantee that the concern he now owns will be completely rejuvenated and brought to the position of a leader in this form of advertising.

Mr. Burdette is engaging a corps of the best talent in the country to aid him in this venture.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY DEKALB COUNTY FAIR WILL MEET TODAY

At 3:30 p. m. Thursday the Woman's Auxiliary of the DeKalb County Fair association, Mrs. J. A. McCrary, chairman, will hold an important meeting in the superior court room, second floor, Guess building, in Decatur.

The special purpose of this meeting is to arrange the final details for the woman's department of the DeKalb County One-Day Fair association. Four buildings have been provided by the fair association for exhibits of the four different departments of the fair: Childress' warehouse on Sycamore street, for live stock; Bank of Decatur building, 19 Sycamore street, for poultry and pet stock; Norris building, West Court square, for agricultural exhibits, and the store room known as 24 Sycamore street, Weekes building, for the woman's department.

The Woman's auxiliary will have entire charge of the woman's building and all exhibits made by women will be collected in this building. In addition to this important work of arranging for these exhibits, the Woman's Auxiliary will also arrange rest rooms and public comfort stations for the women and children visiting the fair October 24-25.

The Membership.

The complete list of the Woman's Auxiliary is as follows, and Mrs. McCrary urges that each of them be present at the meeting:

Mrs. Nellie S. Candler, Mrs. L. S. Bottenfield, Mrs. H. L. Parry, Mrs. W. H. S. Hamilton, Mrs. H. W. Cantrell, Mrs. P. H. Jeter, Miss Louise Colzey, Mrs. J. L. Lee, Mrs. R. F. Smith, Mrs. W. C. Suit Over Dog Should Have Gone to the Jury, Rules Supreme Court

Without undertaking to decide whether or not damages may be collected for the killing of a dog, the court of appeals yesterday, in the case of Prickett against Title, decided that it was error on the part of a judge to direct a non-suit in such a case, where malice has been shown. Prior decisions of courts of review have been to the effect that the dog is not recognized as an animal of money value by our law. In this case, however, the court appears to hold that the case should be allowed to go to the jury which might find nominal damages and assess the costs against the defendant.

COCHRAN FINDS MACHINE

But It Doesn't Look the Same as in Olden Days.

J. Oscar Cochran, manager of city parks, who some months ago lost his machine, gave out the information Tuesday that he had found it and that it is now in the city garage. "The machine is very different in appearance from the last time I saw it," he stated. "In fact it is almost a new machine. It has been repainted and changed in several different ways. It was found in Cherokee county and was brought back from Canton, Georgia. Must have been used to haul mountain dew by some of the people of that region. At any rate, it has been used, without doubt."

UNITY CLUB ENTERTAINS DR. HENRY S. BRADLEY

Dr. Henry Stiles Bradley, pastor of the Piedmont Congregational church, Worcester, Mass., who was formerly pastor of Trinity church here, will be the honor guest at a meeting of the Unity club, to be held Wednesday afternoon in the Pine room of the Ansley hotel at 4 o'clock, which will be followed by a dinner at 6:30.

The Unity club consists of ministers and teachers. Dr. Bradley will read a paper at the meeting and others to attend the meeting will be Dr. J. W. Baxter, of New York, and prominent ministers of Atlanta.

General Hints About The Care of the Hair

The hair should be properly combed and brushed every day. The daily wetting of the scalp is detrimental to the growth of the hair; it removes the natural greasiness and causes the hair to become dry and brittle. A shampoo in a fortnight for adults is necessary, in order to remove the accumulation of dirt, and keep the pores open. For this, lukewarm water and Saponified Cocoanut Oil is recommended; 35 cents at Jacobs' Pharmacy. Comb and brush should be kept scrupulously clean, and no other person should be allowed to use them, and should be sterilized by washing in boiling water occasionally. —(adv.)

WINDOWS PRETTY WITH WELCH'S GRAPE JUICE

Many Wide-Awake Merchants Making Attractive Displays of the National Drink.

Taking advantage of the big crowds which have flocked to Atlanta to see the sights of the Southeastern fair, a number of the live merchants of the city have prepared some exceedingly pretty window displays on Welch's Grape Juice, the national drink.

This product is one of the best known newspaper advertised drinks in the country, and after a campaign of advertising for years in leading magazines, this product came to the newspapers practically for the first time last year, The Constitution being among the first eighteen leading dailies to carry the advertising of this splendid food beverage.

The displays about the city, which have been arranged by C. A. Titus, the energetic and wide-awake district sales manager, have attracted much attention and occasioned much favorable comment. Among those making displays are Marshall's pharmacy, Peachtree and Tenth streets and Peachtree and Ivy streets; Taylor Bros., Peachtree and Tenth streets; Barnett Bros., 825 Peachtree street; Morris-Rainey, 548 Peachtree street; Jacobs' pharmacy, 544 Peachtree street; Peachtree pharmacy, 499 Peachtree street; Gunter-Watkins Drug Co., Peachtree and Walton streets; the Nunnally stores; Dunwoody pharmacy, on Peachtree street; E. H. Cone's drug stores; Jacobs' pharmacy, 23 Whitehall street; Jacobs' pharmacy and Brannon's Drug Company on Marietta street.

Besides the above, many large fountains have pretty Welch displays, including Thos. Pitts, Prattis & Refinis, Palace of Sweets, Crystal Soda Co., Glover Soda Co., and many other good fountains in the city.

It is a fact worth noting that since the Welch Grape Juice firm commenced advertising the cost of their product to the dealer has been reduced from $12 per case to $4, and to the consumer in like proportion.

The force, the crowd-selling of national advertising was responsible for this, increasing the volume and thus decreasing the cost of production, in the face of increases in raw material, from $10 a ton for grapes in 1897 to the high-water mark of $60 a ton two seasons ago.

The present season, in fact, will demand a higher price for grapes, yet the Welch 1917 announcement has gone forth that the trade list for the new season will be identical with last.

This is a specific answer to the uninformed economist who considers advertising a burden upon the ultimate consumer.

GOVERNOR WILL SPEAK AT DODGE COUNTY FAIR

Governor Harris left yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Macon, spending the night there, preparatory to proceeding to Eastman, where he is scheduled to deliver an address today at the Dodge county fair.

ATLANTA PAYING DEBTS.

City Will Soon Have Paid All Its Obligations.

From present indications the city of Atlanta will be clear of all debts by November 1. The hope of Mayor Woodward that the administration may be able to have money in hand to turn over to the incoming administration on January 1 now becomes a possibility.

Mayor Woodward has signed checks in the last few days paying off $210,000 of the $400,000 borrowed money advanced to the city at the first of this year. On Friday he will sign another check of $116,000 wiping out this additional sum from the money borrowed by the city, and on next Monday he will pay a check for $74,000, thus cutting down the debt from $400,000 to a clean sheet.

More than $200,000 in bills due for many months past has been paid out in the past few weeks.

On Wednesday it was reported that the city now has on hand something like $200,000. It is estimated that all bills due can be easily met within the next few days, leaving only current expenses to be paid.

It is estimated that the city debt by next Monday will be only in the neighborhood of $100,000 and that will be for current bills due November 1.

MOTHER'S REMEDY FOR BRUISES

Children's Bumps, Sprains and Minor Hurts Quickly Relieved by Sloan's Liniment.

It is the very nature of children to hurt themselves—to come crying to mother with little fingers bruised, with heads bumped, with sprained ankles and wrists.

They are painful hurts, too. But their pain and sting can't survive the gentle use of this liniment. A single application of Sloan's Liniment and—the little fellow's bravely kept back tears give way to smiles. His hurt is relieved.

In every home where there are children a bottle of Sloan's Liniment is a necessity.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, lumbago, stiff neck, backache, chilblains, etc., can be effectively relieved with Sloan's Liniment. Cleaner than mussy ointments or plasters.

Sloan's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c, 50c, and $1.00.

WHITNEY EXPECTS TO HAND CHAMP LACING

----EDITED BY----
DICK JEMISON

WHITNEY EXPECTS TO STOP DUFFY

Local Fighter in Trim for Friday's Battle — Expects to Rush Champion From Sound of Gong.

There is no denying the fact that all the boys who step to the center of the ring for tomorrow night's boxing contests at the Lyric theater are going to be in the very best condition.

Frank Whitney, the local star, and Jimmy Duffy, American claimant of the lightweight championship, have worked harder for this mill than they have for any previous glovefest in some time. Whitney did all his training right here in Atlanta, while Duffy's many bouts throughout the country during the past few months have done much to keep him on edge.

It is surprising to note the confidence Whitney is showing in tomorrow night's mill. Frank feels that he is in the best condition of his career, and we all know that when Frank is right he is a pretty tough customer to down.

Duffy a Bearcat.

Whitney, of course, will find himself pitted against a boy who ranks right at the top of his division. It must be remembered that this same Duffy party has beaten or held his own against such boys as Packey McFarland, Jack Britton, Ted Lewis, Charlie White, Johnny Griffiths, Freddie Welsh and others. Any boy who can battle these lads to a standstill must be good, so it looks as if Frank has a very hard job before him.

Frank will have to make an aggressive battle of it to win, as Duffy is said to be one of the cleverest boxers in the world. This is just the line of battle Frank expects to wage, which means that Duffy will be kept busy throughout the mill.

Whitney will do just enough work to keep his muscles loosened up today. He will box three rounds with Budd and the same number with Kirk, after which he will toss the padded mitts aside until he squares off with Duffy tomorrow night.

Despite the class of the Frank Whitney-Jimmy Duffy battle, the other bouts on the card are also attracting unusual interest, due mostly to the big following the different boys have around these parts.

Battling Budd, the promising Atlanta youngster, and Young Feldman, the Macon slasher, are just wild for the start of their ten-round mill. Budd and Feldman have already put up two good battles, and the chances are that they will repeat tomorrow night, as both realize that much depends on the result.

There has been much rivalry between these boys ever since the Labor Day show here, when Feldman claimed that Budd did not care for any of his game. The "Battler" will be out to show the Macon slasher that he was very much mistaken, and the best way for Budd to prove this is to hand the Macon slugger a neat lacing, which the local lad will find anything but an easy task.

Other Good Bouts.

The other ten-round contest on the card will be between Ray Kirk, of Atlanta, and Kid Young, also of this city. There are many who think this bout will be the best scrap on the card. Both are fairly clever as well as being great sluggers, and the fur should certainly fly during their ten-round encounter.

Battling Sheppard and Terry Nelson will open the evening's entertainment with an eight-round canto. These boys should give the fans a good bout to start the night's fun. They fought eight slashing rounds to a draw some time back, and unless all signs fail this coming go between them should prove just as good as their other meeting.

Above is the card of thirty-eight rounds of boxing, and it should furnish enough glove-wielding to satisfy the most rabid boxing fan. It is by far the best card ever offered fans around these parts, and the chances are it will draw a capacity house.

Tickets on Sale.

Tickets for the show are on sale at Randolph Rose's place, 14 Marietta street. The pasteboards can be purchased for $1, $1.50, $2. Ringside seats can be bought for $3. The box seats have been set aside for ladies. No smoking will be allowed inside the Lyric theater. A special section has been set aside for colored fans.

Fuzzy Woodruff will be the third man in the ring for the Whitney-Duffy scrap and the Budd-Feldman contest. Jake Abel will act in the Sheppard-Nelson and Young-Kirk battle. This completes all arrangements for tomorrow night's card.

Virginia's Coaches

On the left is Head Coach Pat Evans, and on the right is ex-Captain Harris Coleman, now assistant coach. They are whipping the Virginia team in shape for the Georgia game.

JUST SOME NOTES

Averill Harriman will drive Directum I., 1:56¾, a fast mile at Goshen, N. Y., October 26.

Amateur girl swimmers will form an organization of their own apart from the Amateur Athletic union patterned after the Australian women's governing body.

R. Norris Williams II., of Philadelphia, national lawn tennis champion, whom it is expected will rank first, plays the most distinctive game in America, according to expert opinion. He drives off the rising bounce instead of the fall of the ball, as most players. He prefers a peculiar style of back course game, just inside the base line, from where he makes the most marvelous shots to the side lines. His volley game is accurate and wonderful for its angles, while his overhead is deadly in its speed and placement. He is severe off the ground both forehand and backhand, but prone to erratic streaks. His service is a swift American twist which scores many points for him.

Hot Springs is tied with Macon for the training camps world's baseball championship. The Boston American champions of 1905 and the Braves of 1914 trained in the latter city, while the Red Sox of 1912 and 1915 prepared for their season's work at the Arkansas health resort.

Leland Stanford university will have illustrated lectures as an integral part of athletic training. This is an upward step in the idea of courses of instruction for athletics inaugurated by Rice Templeton last year in connection with track and field instruction. Photographs of champions, past and present, in action and moving pictures taken on the college campus will be used.

JACKETS HOLD PRACTICE DESPITE HEAVY RAIN

Long Signal Practice With Wet Ball Held at Grant Field.

Notwithstanding the bad weather on yesterday afternoon, Tech continued in their preparation for North Carolina Saturday by holding a long signal practice which took the place of the usual routine of work, which consists of a short signal drill, dummy tackling and a long scrimmage.

Yesterday's work-out was good for the Jackets in one respect at least, and that was to help them in handling the ball. There will hardly be a game played by Tech in which the weather will be worse than it was yesterday afternoon and if the men get in a few more practices with a wet ball, very little fumbling should be done during the remainder of the season.

If the weather is at all good this afternoon, the Jackets will probably be given a good, stiff scrimmage to make up for their day of idleness in that line. If scrimmages are in order today, the men will be given nothing but a light work-out on Friday.

Even if the bad weather keeps up until Saturday, Grant field should be in fair shape, as the field is grass-covered, and there will be no battle in the mud, as has been the case in the past seasons.

While the varsity tackles Carolina, the Tech freshmen will play Furman university in Greenville, S. C. The freshmen have one of the best first year teams at Tech in several years and they are certain to give a good account of themselves.

ATTENDANCE FIGURES FOR TWO YEARS GIVEN

Report Shows That 1916 Was a Profitable One for Southern League Magnates.

Birmingham, Ala., October 18.—(Special.)—The attendance figures of the Southern league were announced today by President Robert H. Baugh. The comparison of the official figures for 1915 and 1916 shows that the past season was a neat gain. The figures for the two years follow:

CITY—	1915.	1916.
Atlanta	95,559	136,714
Birmingham	119,994	99,879
Chattanooga	51,164	53,479
Nashville	97,876	111,414
New Orleans	127,765	111,387
Memphis	167,874	174,493
Mobile	50,063	38,930
Little Rock	75,098	89,587
Totals	751,720	815,927

The increase of 1916 over 1915 is 64,207 as compared with a loss registered by 1915 over 1914.

"The league, as a whole, had a very successful year," said the chief executive. "Mobile suffered a heavy loss, but that was largely due to the flood which practically ruined the Gulf City. The heavy rains, which lasted continuously for over a month, put a big crimp in the game. Had it not been for this I firmly believe a new attendance record for the season would have easily been established. There were several other minor handicaps in the way of making the season the most successful in our history, but we haven't anything to kick about."

GEORGIA AND AUBURN TO PLAY IN COLUMBUS

Athens, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—The Georgia-Auburn football game will be played in Columbus, Ga., at the urgent invitation of trade bodies and alumni of both institutions there it was announced tonight by Professor Sanford. The place of the game had been till now undetermined. The date will be November 4.

MORDECAI BROWN WILL BE FORTY YEARS OLD TODAY

This is the fortieth birthday of Mordecai Brown, once the stellar twirler of the old Chance machine. The three-fingered miner has been back in a Cub uniform this year, after pastiming with the Feds, and figured in about a dozen games for the Tinkerites. In September he engaged in a pitching duel with his old rival, Christy Mathewson, but the Reds got nineteen hits off his delivery and won the game by a score of 10 to 8. Old Three-Fingers wasn't far behind Matty in effectiveness, however, for the Cubs touched the Old Master for fifteen hits. Last July Brownie proved that his old skill as a Giant-killer hadn't entirely deserted him by holding the McGrawites down to two hits in five innings. It is highly improbable that Brown will play ball next season, but having reached the venerable age of 40, he can afford to rest on his laurels. He was born at Nyesville, Ind., October 19, 1876, and still spends his winters among the Hoosiers, although he has mining interests in California. Brown tried his hand at the managerial role with the St. Louis Feds in 1914, but didn't make much of a hit with the Mound City fans. Brown broke into the majors with the Cardinals in 1903, but was soon traded to the Cubs, and he remained with Chicago for nine seasons. He went to the Reds in 1913 and skipped to the Feds the following year. He has pitched professional ball for sixteen seasons, having spent a year in Terre Haute and another in Omaha before breaking into the big show.

MARINE CORPS TEAMS WIN AT JACKSONVILLE

Jacksonville, Fla., October 18.—Five separate teams entered by the United States marine corps, in the enlisted men's team match today at the rifle tournament here captured all prizes offered for the winners in this important contest. The match brought out 23 teams. The fourth marine team, with 557 out of a possible 600, finished first and captured the handsome trophy and cash prizes. Each of the six men composing the team also received medals.

The championship company team match was won by company F, First Ohio infantry, from 21 competitors, with a score of 361 out of a possible 400. Company G, First Iowa infantry, with 354 points, finished second, and company B, Washington High School cadets, third, with 353. Each team was composed of four men, medals and cash being the prizes.

The First Iowa infantry, with a score of 808 out of a possible 900 points, carried off the regimental team match, winning the championship trophy and cash from a field of 32 entries. The First Minnesota infantry, with 797 points, finished second, and the 74th New York infantry third, with 793.

The Civilian Rifle club match went to the Mound City team, of St. Louis, which scored 702 out of a possible 800 points. The First Idaho Civilian team, with 695 points, finished second, and the A. & N. Union Rifle club team, third, with 681 points. The winning team received a banner and cash. Forty teams competed.

Darkness overtook the firing in the pistol team match after the slow fire stage. The National association's program will be concluded tomorrow morning, the 1,000-yard stage of the president's match, the members' match and the rapid fire stage of the pistol match being the concluding events.

Additional team arrivals today included North Dakota national guard and Georgia civilian. Fifty-three teams are now on the range.

HATCH RUNS 95 MILES IN LESS THAN 15 HOURS

Chicago, October 18.—A heaping dish of ice cream and some lemonade was all that Sidney Hatch, of Chicago, an amateur marathon runner, wanted after he finished his record-breaking 95-mile run from Milwaukee to Chicago today. Then he went to bed for a 24-hour sleep.

Officials of the Amateur Athletic union declared that Hatch's performance probably was the most remarkable in history. He covered the distance—95.7 miles—in 14 hours, 50 minutes and 30 seconds, beating the former record by four hours and seven minutes, and averaging a mile every 8½ minutes.

Hatch ran every step of the way, making only three stops, for a total loss of 16 minutes, and finished strong. Hatch is 33 years old.

Turkey claims first place on the Special Menu in the Green Tree Lunch Room today. Davison-Paxon-Stokes Co.

TODAY IN PUGILISM

1903—Terry McGovern defeated Jimmy Briggs in fifteen rounds at Boston. That was the last battle of Terrible Terry's real career, and although twice thereafter he tried to pull off a come-back stunt, his Boston bout with Briggs was really the finish of the famous Brooklynite as a headliner. Soon after that he became ill and dropped out of sight for a couple of years. In October of 1905 he started another campaign, but it didn't get him anywhere in particular. Again in 1908 Terry fought a couple of unimportant bouts. Jimmy Briggs showed a lot of class, defeating such good men as Kid Broad, Martin Flaherty and Tommy Feltz among many others, but when he went against the topnotchers he wasn't quite good enough. During his long ring career he lost to Dave Sullivan, Young Corbett, Charlie Neary and Harry Lewis. Briggs fought frequently for ten years, his career covering the period from 1898 to 1908.

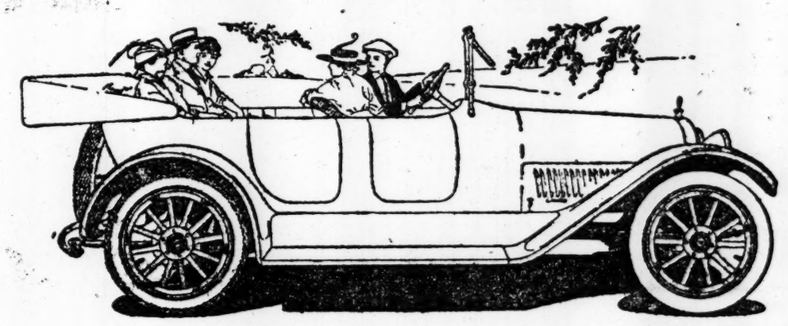
AMERICA'S FIRST CAR
HAYNES
America's Greatest "Light Six"



America's Greatest "Light Six" $1485

THE pick of present day light car production. Always a motor car of character and unusual beauty, the new series Haynes is the peer of its famous predecessors in equipment and economy. The famous "Light Six" Haynes motor was too good to be changed. After service under every road condition it still sets the pace in motor cars of its type. If your question is excellence in material, rightness in construction, painstaking care in making and fashioning, body lines of good taste, fairness of price, thrift of upkeep—you will discover that the Haynes is a motor car designed to meet these standards.

The Haynes motor develops more power than any other motor of equal bore and stroke. It will throttle down to less than a mile an hour and speed up to more than a mile a minute. It has a range of flexibility that is the master of any kind of going and reserve power that is better than the steepest hill.

The Haynes "Light Six" has made a name for its low maintenance. It has averaged from 16-22 miles per gallon of gasoline—7,500-8,000 miles to the set of tires—350-400 miles to the quart of oil.

The car's appointment bears out the performance of its rugged able motor. Its sweeping lines—its handsomely shaped body—its soft toned interior—its carefully selected equipment, await your critical inspection today at the dealer's sales rooms.

AMUSEMENTS

Dainty Marie.

(At the Forsyth.)

Dainty Marie, the "Venus of the Air," with the assistance of captivating Margrette Meeker, offers an act as one of the features of the Keith vaudeville bill at the Forsyth this week that occupies about the same niche in the realm of acrobatics that Signor Enrico Caruso fills in the world of singers. Mlle. Marie's act undoubtedly is one of the finest bits of artistry in vaudeville. Clad in white tights she clings to a ribbon suspended from the ceiling and offers some of the most striking of poses, typical of the paintings of the great masters. Dainty Marie's exhibition, while horizontal with the stage, is presented with as much ease as if she were a model on a firm pedestal. Throughout her act she maintains a running fire of song and happy chatter.

Other features of this week's bill, proclaimed by all critics as a top-notcher, include Harry Green in the comedy sketch, "The Cherry Tree," decidedly the swiftest comedy of the year; Charles Kellog, the nature singer, in an unusual exhibition; Joe Laurie and Aleen Bronson and others.

Bessie Barriscale.

(At the Georgian.)

Bessie Barriscale is starred with William Desmond at the Georgian theater today in "Not My Sister." It is a story filled with thrills and unexpected happenings and holds the attention of the audience throughout in the closest manner. Grace Tyler, the principal character, played by Miss Barriscale, is an artist's model. The story is most interesting and is woven around the love of two men for the same woman. There is a mystery murder and difficulty is experienced in finding the guilty one. Everything works out all right, however, in the end, and is thrilling and unexpected.

On Friday Mary Pickford is coming in "Hulda From Holland."

Change of Bill.

(At the Piedmont.)

The mid-week change in the vaudeville at the Piedmont theater takes place today, and now that other musicians have been engaged, everything is running as smoothly as before. Foremost of the new offerings coming today should be mentioned the "Musical Three," a turn composed of two men and one woman who present a comedy musical act that is said to be great. Mixed with comedy of the better kind they play well upon wind instruments of every conceivable form. Another offering today that will please is the Smiletta Sisters in an acrobatic act.

The success scored by the management in presenting the screen classic, "Hypocrites," has caused the continuance of the same picture for the balance of the week as well as a Metro travelogue.

"Romeo and Juliet."

(At the Grand.)

John Winthrop Noble, who supervised and directed the pretentious screen masterpiece, "Romeo and Juliet," at the Grand opera house this week, in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are starred, now ranks with the foremost directors of the world. Students of Shakespeare and the drama and the foremost critics in the country have declared his production of "Romeo and Juliet" the most artistic interpretation of the immortal love story ever presented. Mr. Noble has set a standard that will undoubtedly stand for many years in the realm of the silent art.

Mr. Noble was one of the first directors employed by the Metro Pictures corporation. Among some of the features he has produced are "The Wall Between" and "Man and His Soul," with Mr. Bushman and Miss Bayne; William Faversham in "One Million Dollars" and "The Right of Way;" Henry Kolker and Renee Kelly in "The Bridge, or the Bigger Man;" Grace Elliston and Grace Valentine in "Black Fear" and other big successes.

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and cannot salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

GET THE RIGHT MAN FOR THE RIGHT JOB

If every employer could get the right man on the right job, the problem of running a business would be settled.

The lost motion resulting from the wrong man or the wrong job would be eliminated and the time and money wasted would be saved.

Perhaps such a condition will never prevail, but every time a "Help Wanted" ad is inserted in The Constitution a move is made in that direction.

From the number of answers received from a "Help Wanted" ad in this paper, the employer can easily find the right man for the right job.

OLD "UNCLE KEMP" PEACEFULLY PASSES AT ATHENS HOME

Athens, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—"Uncle Kemp," remembered by even the "oldest inhabitant" of Athens, was buried here Tuesday, a number of white people attending his funeral. He was reliably reported to be 103 years of age at the time of his death.

Ten days ago he fell and was slightly hurt, but not disabled. Friday last he went to sleep and slept peacefully for more than 65 hours, never waking up.

NEW JUDGE TO PRESIDE AT NEXT MILLEN COURT

Millen, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—After a three days' session the city court of Millen adjourned its quarterly term this afternoon late. Quite a large amount of business was transacted during the week. This was the last trial term at which Judge Thomas L. Hill will preside, as Grover C. Dekle goes into office on January 1, and will preside at the January quarterly term of court.

Judge Hill has moved his law office to Savannah and engaged in general practice from there. Solicitor Willie Woodrum will serve as solicitor again for the next two years.

Ben Clark, of Savannah, after being introduced by Thomas L. Hill, judge of city court of Millen, spoke here for nearly an hour this morning in the interest of Mr. Hughes for president of the United States.

FORTUNE IN GEORGIA HAY

Interesting Exhibit Made at Fair by M. S. Charles.

M. S. Charles, Dalton, Ga., has installed a unique display in the Agricultural building at the exposition in the form of six bales of hay made from as many varieties of native grasses, harvested upon his farm this year.

The exhibitor has 100 tons of such hay, and he declared Wednesday that he brought six samples to the fair more for the educational effect they may have, and to direct farmers and live stock men of Georgia to a means of revenue generally overlooked, than to win a prize or reap any pecuniary reward for himself.

"This hay," said Mr. Charles, "has been grown without a cent of expense; the only cost has been in the harvesting and baling. Conditions on my farm are only common to the entire state.

"There is wealth unthought-of in the native grasses of Georgia," he said further, "and it is being overlooked by the great majority of farmers and breeders of cattle, horses, and other species of live stock. In the first place, these six varieties of native grasses, each rich in food elements, need not be sown nor cultivated; they are indigenous and grow to perfection if let alone.

"I have it on the best of authority that Georgia consumes annually $100,000,000 worth of hay, and sends out of the state for that commodity $30,000,000 each year. Therefore, I figure that the value of our native grasses could be brought to one hundred millions of dollars per annum."

JUDGE M'KENZIE DIES AT MOULTRIE HOME

Moultrie, Ga., October 18.—(Special.) Judge J. D. McKenzie, one of the most prominent men of Moultrie and one of the best known lawyers in this section of the state, died at his home here late last night.

His widow and two children, Reed McKenzie and Mrs. Eugene Morris, survive.

The deceased was 53 years of age and had made his home here for twenty years. He was a native of Macon county.

The funeral occurred at the Baptist church here this afternoon.

POLITICAL POT BEGINS TO BOIL AT AMERICUS

Americus, Ga., October 18.—(Special.)—The first gun in the city primary, to be held on November 9, was fired with the announcement of Frank J. Payne, as clerk and treasurer, to succeed Harvey W. Weaver, who states that he will not be a candidate for re-election. Tucker Ansley, also well known here, is expected to announce for clerk and treasurer.

Alderman Dudley, whose term expires, will not be a candidate. Mayor Lee G. Council and Aldermen Bell and Jones have not made known their intentions as to the race for re-election. Police Commissioners H. O. Horton's and C. J. Clarke's terms expires, but they have made no announcement.

New York, October 18.—The cotton market showed greater activity and excitement at the opening today than at any previous time this season, and there was a sensational advance in prices. July contracts sold at 19c on the call, while before the buying movement subsided, January sold at 18.78 or more than $10 per bale above the low level of last week. That delivery closed at 18.51 with the general list closing barely steady at a net advance of 33 to 42 points for the day.

There was a rush of general buying at the start, with first prices strong at an advance of 19 to 56 points. Only during periods of extraordinary excitement have such spectacular overnight gains been reported in the history of the market, and it looked as if the threatening aspects of the gulf storm had brought in many traders who had previously hesitated to follow the advance.

Bullish sentiment was also encouraged by the firmness of Liverpool, private reports indicating that a very large proportion of the crop had been picked and ginned, and rumors of a falling off in private ginning returns. Realizing was extremely active, and the rumor was that practically all the older longs were taking profits, but there were only slight reactions until after December had sold at 18.80. January 18.78 and March 18.84, or about 57 to 67 points above last night's closing figures. Even then offerings were well absorbed on setbacks of 18 or 20 points by a broadening outside demand and further covering, but the market became more nervous and unsettled late in the afternoon. Reactionary sentiment was promoted by a feeling that a scattering long interest had accumulated while there were reports that the demand from trade sources had fallen off, and sellers were also talking increased southern spot offerings. Prices eased in consequence, with January selling back to 18.50, or about 28 points from the early high level, and the close showed reactions of some 20 to 27 points from the best. Today's prices were the highest for this season of the year since the autumn of 1872.

Spot cotton steady; middling uplands, 18.60; sales, 300 bales.

Records Broken in New Orleans.

New Orleans, October 18.—The hurricane which swept into Alabama from the gulf and threatened to strike the eastern end of the cotton region put the price of cotton today to the highest levels ever recorded for futures in this market, the distant months trading at above 19 cents a pound. It was one of the most excited markets of the season and at the topmost levels the strongest months were at a net gain of nearly $4.50 a bale.

Prices sky-rocketed on the opening call and in the first few minutes of trading were sent 65 to 89 points above the level of yesterday's close. The July option sold up to 19.17. For a while panic of buying reigned and it was a runaway market.

Leading interests on the long side assumed control of the situation by throwing overboard huge lots of contracts and this profit-taking movement soon spread to smaller traders. Before the session was very old the market had steadied down and was reacting from the advance. From the highest to the lowest there was a fall of 40 to 60 points, prices still being, at the lowest, 20 to 32 points above yesterday's last quotations.

A more or less unsettled feeling prevailed during the remainder of the day, with prices backing and filling nervously. The close was barely steady at a net gain of 29 to 38 points. Spots were advanced 50 points to 17.81 for middling, the highest quotation in nearly fifty years.

PROFESSIONAL VIEWS ON COTTON SITUATION

A ring full of buying orders, a bullish report by Miss Giles, and a tropical storm, together with an aggressive demonstration by Mr. Castles, all contributed Wednesday morning to one of the most excited openings in the history of the New York cotton exchange. Trading on the opening was enormous and during the first hour the older and most prominent bulls are said to have liquidated in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million bales. They were also heavy sellers in the afternoon to new buyers. Conservative brokers around the ring turned more reactionary than for several weeks past on the theory that the contracts sold today are now in weaker hands and that spinners must, by this time, be pretty well covered.

In spite of the repeated flurries in the market Wednesday on covering by nervous shorts the market did not look particularly healthy at the new high basis. Prices have advanced since the first of October, just two weeks and a little over, $13.50 per bale. No doubt part of this advance was due to mills purchases of their buying against call cotton, but the great majority of the buying was unquestionably the covering of distressed or frightened shorts. The short interest in the cotton market has consequently been greatly reduced and no matter how much higher prices may go later on, the present seems a good time to stop, look and listen. The tropical storm, with its high winds and heavy rains, have helped to frighten a good many shorts today, but it must not be forgotten that the most violent storm which ever visited the eastern half of the cotton belt, was that one of September 28 and 29, 1906, and it was followed by a sharp decline in cotton prices.

DOREMUS & CO.

New York, October 18.—(Special.)—The cotton market had the most spectacular opening advance seen in years. Prices worked to new high levels, July, in fact, sold at 19 cents. Tremendous local and western liquidation on and after the call caused a quick break of about twenty points, but sold out bulls, shorts and good general scattered buying forced a rally, which carried prices beyond opening highs. For the balance of the day the market was succession of advances and declines. The close was steady, although 19 to 22 points below the best figures.

We look for 20-cent cotton soon, although it is quite possible that that figure will not be realized without opposition and frequent declines of greater or less extent. The action of December, to our minds, foreshadows dangerous possibilities for the shorts. The New York stock is very small. Cotton can not be shipped there from the south without considerable loss. With the trade and mill interests scrambling for all available grades of desirable cotton, it may prove a difficult proposition for December shorts to ship cotton in any volume that will pass muster for delivery.

Consequently, we think the December option is likely to duplicate October's action and we therefore believe it to be the best purchase. Our prediction of 12th, December oil, was realized today, but the advance encountered the usual opposition and the close was at the bottom—11.82. On any sharp break, of say 25 to 30 points, we favor purchases. A strong cotton market will not hereafter necessarily mean higher oil. Lard and the oils, olive, soya bean, cocoanut, linseed and others, as well as greases, are likely to be more important factors and should be closely watched as a basis for market operations. We always consider these markets in basing our advices to southern friends on cotton seed oil.

CHARLES FAIRCHILD & CO.

New York, October 18.—(Special.)—The cotton market opened with a wave of buying orders, which caused the price to rise an average of forty points over the closing of last night. There were reports of a tropical storm in the gulf, also an estimate that about 75 per cent of the crop has already been picked and ginned, as compared with about 50 per cent at this time last year.

Since Friday, there has been steady liquidation of contracts by holders who have believed the price is high, and even today there has been large selling on that belief but the economic forces are so strong the market is not affected. Yesterday goods advanced from ⅛ to 2 cents per yard and the interior spot markets report some increase in sales on the advance.

J. W. JAY & CO.

New York, October 18.—(Special.)—We canont change our opinion recently expressed that the present cotton market is extremely dangerous. From a long standpoint statistics as we see them are not bullish and as the period of growth is about over, the market must fluctuate upon the laws of supply and demand. We do not advise our friends to remain long of cotton at present prices. Liverpool is due one point lower for January contracts.

JOHNSTON, STORM & CO.

New York, October 18.—(Special.)—Under heavy general buying, including both local and southern spot interests, prices in this market again reached new high levels today. Buying for public account is extensive and easily absorbs offerings as they come upon the market. While there is no indication of the advance having discounted the small crop, still reactions of consequence must be expected at almost any time now, but however severe these may be, we believe they will only prove temporary, because of the underlying demand for cotton.

BOND, M'ENANY & CO.

New York, October 18.—(Special.)—A wild and excited opening was met by the realizing by many of the leading cotton houses who have been bullish in their views, but who now think that the buying is of a character to justify them in taking profits for their customers.

This liquidation by old bulls has continued all day, while the demand from new speculative buying has been present on a large scale to take the place at the highest prices in twenty years of those who bought lower at the close. The buying of some call cotton arrested the decline which had set in from the high point. Under the weight of this profit-taking the reports of a storm warning from the Alabama coast passing northeast were utilized to stimulate the activity at the opening, but it comes after nearly two months of excellent weather for the crop and there are no indications of frost on the map.

We believe the crop will be larger and the consumption less than present estimates.

HUBBARD BROS. CO.

New York, October 18.—(Special.)—Sixty to sixty-five points were added today to cotton prices. First, a tropical storm was forecasted; second, Miss Giles stated that the amount ginned was 70 per cent of the total crop against any previous record showing not more than 55 per cent, and third and possibly most important, there was quite a lot of spot cotton bought at and below the 15-cent level against which hedges had been sold and the margin calls against the hedges finally exasperated the owners of this cotton into covering their hedges and carrying their cotton without any hedge to cover.

Twenty cents tomorrow has been the slogan of the bull all of today and with the tide and wind in his favor it is now not impossible that he may accomplish his goal, but to whom will he sell his cotton when he reaches 20 cents? Certainly with Germany and Austria, portions of France, Belgium and Poland standing idle, the cotton spinning machinery of the world will have their hands full if they are called upon to take as much cotton as the world once took when at peace. Excepting 1911-12, when the spinner took nearly an extra year's supply, the spinner has never yet taken as much as 14,500,000 bales in any one year. Counting the old cotton carried over the visible supply and the government estimate of the growing crop we have about 15,800,000 bales to draw from.

If, therefore, the takings break records and the government crop is realized we will still have 1,500,000 bales left and there are but few years in all of history when we had that much from one crop to another. It is speculation and not famine behind this market and at these levels we are afraid of speculation which is over-confident.

July cotton touched 19 cents today, which is only 1 cent away from the 20-cent level. We advise our friends to let the more confident bull have this last cent if it materializes.

Sugar.

New York, October 18.—No changes occurred in raw sugar prices today, but the undertone was firm and further sales were made at last prices. Leading refiners purchased about 35,000 bags of Cubas for late October and early November shipment at 5¾c, cost and freight, equal to 6.27 for centrifugal and about 7,000 tons of full duty sugar at 5 1-16c in bond and ex-store, including some for November shipment. The market closed firm at 5¼c for Cubas, cost and freight, equal to 6.27 for centrifugal and 5.29 for molasses.

There were rumors of further export business in refined sugar, but they could not be confirmed, although it was believed in some quarters that sales had been made. Otherwise trading was quiet, although withdrawals on old contract were moderate, with refiners still behind in deliveries. Prices were unchanged at 7.25 for fine granulated.

The market for sugar futures was a little more active today, total sales amounting to 12,850 tons.

Cotton Goods.

Chicago, October 18.—Still higher prices were predicted today for ginghams and cotton goods, which already have gone from 6¼ before the war to 10⅝ cents a yard. The central cotton garment manufacturers met today to discuss means of equalizing their profit in the face of the increasing prices.

WHEAT QUOTATIONS MADE NEW GAINS

Excited Market Witnessed Rise of Nearly 5 Cents Per Bushel When All High Records Are Excelled.

Chicago, October 18.—Wheat prices ran up excitedly almost 5c a bushel today on top of 7c advance the day before when for a time Joseph Leiter seemed to have obtained control of the entire existing surplus supply. Broadly active foreign buying of future deliveries appeared to be the chief reason for today's violent upturn, which, however, in the end was not well maintained. The market closed excited at the same as yesterday's finish, 3¼c higher with December at $1.66 to $1.66⅝ and May at $1.67⅛ to $1.67¼.

Shortage in the wheat crops of the United States and Canada was further accentuated today by increasing alarm over the Argentine drought and in regard to the premature stoppage of threshing in Canada. Reliance on Argentina to make up largely for the deficit in the United States and Canada cast doubt on whether, owing to interference from snowstorms, the amount of threshing would be even half of what should be accomplished this fall. Besides, estimates were current that 28 to 34 per cent of the spring crop in the United States was unfit for milling and that 61 to 81 per cent of the winter crop was already out of

FINANCIAL MARKET BROAD AND ACTIVE

Speculative Influences Uppermost in Day's Transactions—Paper, Leather and Fertilizer Stocks Unusually Active.

New York, October 18.—Speculative influences were again uppermost in today's broad and active market, a large part of the trade being restricted to specialties of a volatile character and low-priced rails and industrials whose status remains more or less undefined. Chief among these were the paper, leather and fertilizer stocks, which were unusually active at gains of 2 to 6 points.

Other strong shares included United States Industrial Alcohol, which led the specialties at an extreme gain of 14½ to 141½, Cuban-American Sugar and South Porto Rico Sugar, with gross gains of 8 and 5 respectively, and Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies, which wrested supremacy from other shipping issues on its rise of 3¾ to 98, a new record.

Trade conditions are largely responsible for the higher levels in these issues, it being generally recognized that the paper and leather industries are deriving further substantial benefits from foreign orders. The same reason applies with equal force to the sugar stocks, while the movement in Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies, accompanied reports of enormous earnings and prospective dividends to share holders.

Substantial advances were registered by other inactive shares, notably National Biscuit, Loose-Wiles Biscuit, Worthington, Continental Can, Pacific Telephone, Montana Power and Petroleum.

United States Steel lost none of its prominence as the market leader, furnishing its customary large quota but traversing a relatively narrow radius and closing at a net gain of ⅛ of a point. Standard rails were strong during the forenoon, with Chesapeake and Ohio and Illinois Central, the latter being advanced from 5 to a 6 per cent basis. Total sales amounted to 1,090,000 shares.

Developments bearing upon the market were mainly favorable, embracing additional gold imports, advances in steel and iron products, increased demand for copper and easier rates for call loans.

Bond dealings were heavy with an irregular tone to international issues. Total sales, par value, aggregated $7,670,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES

From Day to Day

With a combination of decidedly bad weather and the quiet caused in the real estate field by the interest of the people being at present turned to the great Southeastern fair, the real estate reporter received little encouragement and less news on Wednesday.

However, the day was saved by the exchange of two north side apartment houses and some other less important transactions. Wednesday transfers of bonds for title went on record disclosing the sale to J. Z. Elliott of two brick apartment houses at 242-6 East Fourth street from S. R. Crawford. Mr. Crawford and W. H. Wynne erected the houses, and Mr. Wynne transferred his interest to Mr. Crawford.

The consideration in the transfers amounted to only $10,600, but it is understood that it really reached over $20,000, and that a small piece of property was given as part payment.

An era of prosperous times followed the Cotton States exposition of 1893, and the real estate men anticipate a similar effect when the Southeastern fair closes. That many people visit the fair for the purpose of prospecting is a general belief.

The Same Face Under a New Skin

What is appreciated more than a healthy skin, especially after a siege of face blotches, pimples and other skin troubles? Mr. Peterson of San Francisco relates his experience briefly and happily:

July 26, 1916.

Gentlemen:—I have used four bottles of your S. S. S. for bad blood and blotches on the face, and wish to state the blotches have disappeared and I feel much better.

Yours,
E. A. PETERSON,
25 College Terrace,
San Francisco, Cal.

Mr. Peterson made a practical move when he used S. S. S. for his troubles, for only in S. S. S. could he find purely vegetable roots and herbs properly blended and containing just those qualities his blood so badly needed to assist it in driving out the impurities and rebuilding its vitality. As these facts apply to Mr. Peterson, they apply to anybody who is afflicted with blood disorders.

You won't find S. S. S. a "cure-for-all" medicine. It has a distinct mission to perform as a blood purifier and tonic. It assists Nature in bringing healthy conditions out of disordered blood, which if not corrected may take the form of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Malaria, Eczema, Scrofula or one of the many kinds of skin diseases. The fifty years' successful record of S. S. S. stands as a monument to its merit.

You may be in doubt just what your trouble is, in which case you are offered the service of our blood specialist. Consult him fully and you will be properly directed as to treatment, without charge. But beware of minerals.

Get S. S. S. at any drug store. Demand the genuine. It is purely vegetable. $1,000.00 is offered for proof that S. S. S. contains any minerals.

PROTECTION OF U. S. IS ASKED BY GREEKS

Delegation Presents Petition Which American Minister Garrett Droppers Promises to Forward to Washington.

Athens, Tuesday, October 17.—(Via London, October 18.)—After the demonstration here against the allies, during which a procession of several thousand persons marched to the American legation and protested against the landing of French marines, a delegation of six persons called at the American legation and presented resolutions asking the sympathy and protection of the United States against the encroachments of the entente powers.

The spokesman said in English, in presenting the resolution:

"Henry Clay's speech in regard to Greece's struggle for liberty, as well as one by Daniel Webster, said the struggle would have been made meaningless if the liberties of Greece had been subsequently lost."

The American minister, Garrett Droppers, promised to forward the petition to Washington.

Heavy Greek cavalry patrols are keeping order.

There were about five thousand persons in the crowd which marched to the American legation last night carrying huge American and Greek flags. Recent reports published in Greek newspapers that an American fleet of thirty warships was on the way to Greece inspired the crowd to insist on seeing Mr. Droppers.

For several hours fruitless attempts to gain a hearing at the legation was continued, with repeated cheers for the United States, but no one answered the bell.

Droppers Watched Demonstration.

Unknown to the crowd the American minister and the legation secretary were watching the demonstration from windows of the American club directly opposite. Eventually, a committee including an English-speaking Greek named Kilkis, formerly from Mississippi, was formed to wait upon Mr. Droppers today and beg him to put the case of Greece before the American people.

After the demonstration before the American legation, the crowd marched to the hotel in which are the offices of the Associated Press and renewed the demonstration, waving the American flag and calling on the representative of the news agency to inform the world through the press as to what was going on in Greece.

The royalist newspaper, Newhemera, this morning published a half page editorial addressed to the Associated Press, calling on it to voice "the far-reaching cry being addressed not only to a defenseless people which is being forced to leave neutrality under the whip of violence, but to the whole universe; a cry of protest and indignation embodying all the incalculable moral force concentrated in the American citizen—the cry of elementary justice against the unforgettable iniquities being committed, to the destruction of the liberties of the people of Hellas."

The Newhemera declared that the impartial Amercan press was the only bar before which Greece could obtain justice and sympathy.

Mr. Droppers said today that he would forward to Washington the petition for protection of Greece from the pressure of the entente. He expressed the opinion that the demonstration and appeal to America were due to the reports of the coming of an American fleet.

The action of King Constantine yesterday morning in dismissing all guards during his address to the Greek sailors and in riding alone and unprotected through the crowd pressing about him and touching the sovereign and his horse, appeared to inspire the almost fanatical devotion of the populace. In addition to this the events of yesterday evening, including the seizure of three Greek battleships, which is not yet known generally, presaged possibilities of trouble. The city is being policed by Greek cavalry.

Clash Is Averted.

Three hundred French marines were transferred today from the municipal theater to the Zappeion exposition building within 400 yards of the king's palace. They marched through the streets with bayonets fixed and trumpets blowing, accompanied by moving picture apparatus and an automobile with Franco-British secret police. The front of the larger palace structure is occupied by Prince Andrew and Princess Alice.

Midway on their march the French contingent met three companies of sailors from the former Greek fleet, who have been formed into infantry organizations. Their trumpets were also sounding and they made quite as impressive an appearance as the French with the added picturesque touch of the swinging right arm peculiar to Greek troops on the march.

When the squads met the Greeks turned down another street, leaving the stadium street to the French.

May Withdraw Troops.

A French marine patrol last evening arrested at the point of the bayonet seven youths who were hooting the entente powers. A huge crowd gathered for the purpose of rescuing them. The Greek military commander in Athens called out troops, who charged and dispersed the crowd. Greek patrols were immediately placed in various districts to control any attempts at anti-entente manifestations.

The French admiral in command informed the premier that he would call at the ministry in the morning. It is thought possible that as a result of the British minister's audience with King Constantine the French troops may be withdrawn on a pledge that the Greeks maintain order.

It is known that the king has given command that anti-entente demonstrations must cease, as the very existence of Greece is at stake. It is difficult to say, however, whether in the present state of public opinion over the presence of marines of the foreign powers at Athens and Piraeus, even the king's orders will be obeyed by the excited populace.

GEORGIA LIBRARIANS CLOSE THEIR MEETING

The eleventh convention of the Georgia Library association, which opened Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the association's headquarters, the Carnegie library of Atlanta, closed Wednesday afternoon.

A session was held Wednesday morning in the assembly tent at the fair grounds at 9:30 o'clock. The program was as follows:

1. "How to Meet the Library Needs of the Farm," Miss Minnie Leatherman, secretary, North Carolina Library commission, Raleigh.
2. "The Work and Needs of the Georgia Library Commission," Mrs. J. K. Ottley, chairman, Georgia Library commission, Atlanta.
3. "The Development of School Libraries in the South," Miss Lucy E. Fay, librarian, University of Tennessee, Knoxville.
4. "Labor-Saving Devices For Libraries," C. Seymour Thompson, librarian, public library, Savannah.

After the adjournment of this session a visit was made to the library exhibit in the Liberal Arts building of the fair.

The third and final session opened at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Carnegie library. The program was as follows:

PUBLIC LIBRARY ROUNDTABLE.

1. "Publicity Methods for Public Libraries," Carl H. Milam, director, public library, Birmingham.
2. "County Library Extension," Miss Margaret Dunlap, librarian, public library, Chattanooga.

Open discussion. Question box.

MOOSE WILL INVITE THOMAS MARSHALL TO PAY VISIT HERE

The local lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will meet Friday night in the Woodmen's hall in the McKenzie building at 8 o'clock. The feature of the meeting will be the presence of Adison M. O'Flint, associate national director of the order, who, along with D. A. McClelland, a national director, has been vigorously waging a campaign in the southeastern states for more members.

A movement has been started by the local lodge to bring Vice President Thomas R. Marshall to Atlanta sometime between the 10th and 20th of next month in the interest of the order, according to Mr. O'Flint. Many state and civic officials are members of the order, and are eager to have Mr. Marshall come.

Mr. O'Flint says that the Loyal Order of Moose is growing very rapidly, and now has a membership of over 900,000, and 1,938 homes in the United States and foreign countries.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When constipated or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you will have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

To Which Class Do You Belong?

Some business concerns are getting credit to which they are not entitled. Others, clearly entitled to credit, are denied it by their banks.

The first class will not, of course, call an auditor until compelled by their banks to do so. The second suffers injustice through its own neglect.

To which class do you belong? If you are entitled to more credit, your bank will gladly extend it to you upon proper presentation of the facts.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR OPENS AT BREMEN WITH GREAT CROWD

Bremen, Ga., October 18.—(Special.) Despite the very inclement weather the Farmers' Agricultural fair opened here today. Large crowds from various sections of west Georgia and eastern Alabama are present and much enthusiasm is manifested.

An interesting feature of the exhibits is the display of Haralson Corn club boys, under direction of County Agent Hutcheson, and Haralson Canning club girls, under Miss Mary Stone, county agent. The exhibits are all excellent and well arranged. The building is crowded with products of farmers of this section and the poultry is making a good showing.

Hon. Gordon Lee, congressman from the seventh district, was present and made an excellent opening address, reviewing work of last congress toward development of agriculture and the assistance that is to be rendered farmers through passing of rural credit bill. He also paid tribute to President Wilson and gave him credit for the masterful way in which he has guided the affairs of the nation.

SHE DARKENED HER GRAY HAIR

A Kansas City Lady Darkened Her Gray Hair and Stimulated Its Growth by a Simple Home Process.

She Tells How She Did It.

A well-known resident of Kansas City, Mo., who darkened her gray hair by a simple home process, made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray or faded hair, stimulate its growth and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To half pint of water add 1 oz. bay rum, 1 small box of Barbo Compound and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair every other day until the gray hair is darkened sufficiently. This mixture relieves itching and is excellent for dandruff. It does not stain the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. It will make a gray haired person look 10 to 20 years younger."—(adv.)

In the Matter of the Empire Life Insurance Company.

To Whom It May Concern: Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as Insurance Commissioner of the State of Georgia, has filed an amendment to his petition for direction heretofore filed in the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, in the consolidated cause of William A. Wright, as Insurance Commissioner of the State of Georgia, v. The Empire Life Insurance Company and James R. Brown et al. v. The Empire Life Insurance Company, the same being Nos. 33072 and 31707. The purpose of said amendment is to ask the further direction of the Court in the disposition of two pieces of real estate in the City of Augusta, Georgia, belonging to The Empire Life Insurance Company, and known as Nos. 757, 759, 761, 763 Broad street and 767 Broad street; the first named parcel of land having thereon an unfinished building known as The Empire Life Building, and the second parcel of land being the site of what was the Postal Telegraph building.

This matter has been set for hearing before Hon. W. D. Ellis, one of the judges of the said Court, on the 4th day of November, 1916, at 9:30 a. m., at the courthouse in the City of Atlanta, Fulton County, Georgia.

All persons at interest in said cause, be they policy-holders, creditors or stockholders, may be heard at the time and place above mentioned, or at any continuance thereof.

This notice is given in pursuance of an order entered in this cause by the Honorable William D. Ellis, judge as aforesaid, on the 16th day of October, 1916.

Witness my hand and official signature, at Atlanta, Georgia, this 16th day of October, 1916.
WILLIAM A. WRIGHT.
